

management committee grants. The committee will be called the Grants Program Review and Advisory Committee.

Five grant review boards will sit to evaluate the applications. Each board will focus on a review of applications of the following areas: industry labor-management committees, area labor-management committees, in-plant committees, public (state and local) committees, and public education committees. Each board will consist of three individuals selected from the following pool of committee members: three representatives from state government labor-management programs, three former grantees, one member from a national trade union association, one from a national business or industry organization, one from the National Labor-Management Association, one from a professional association such as the Industrial Relations Research Association, and five federal mediators. One federal mediator will sit on each board. The boards will then convene as the full committee to discuss their findings and make recommendations to the agency.

The scope of the committee is limited to reviewing the current process, evaluating the direction of the grants program, and issuing recommendations for actual grants. FMCS will provide the necessary support for the committee. The full committee or the individual review boards will meet as often as necessary. The advisory committee will issue a final report on its findings and recommendations. The official to whom the committee will report is the Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The Grants Program Manager, Peter Regner, will serve as Chairman to the Committee. The advisory committee should not be needed after September 30, 1995.
