

- (a) Avoiding or minimizing adverse impacts by reducing the degree or magnitude of the action or its implementation.
- (b) Mitigating or eliminating adverse impacts by repairing, rehabilitating, or restoring the affected environment and/or community resource.
- (c) Reducing or eliminating adverse impacts over time by long-term preservation and maintenance operations.
- (d) Compensating for adverse impacts by replacing adversely impacted resources or providing substitute resources or environments that enhance the affected area.

c. Determining Whether an Action Has a Disproportionately High and Adverse Effect on Minority Populations or Low-Income Populations. An adverse impact shall be found to have a disproportionately high and adverse effect on low-income or minority populations when:

- (a) The adverse impact is predominantly borne by a minority population and/or a low-income population, or
- (b) The adverse impact that will be suffered by the minority population and/or low-income population is more severe or greater in magnitude than the adverse impact that will be suffered by the non-minority population and/or non-low-income population.
