

Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Norton Diamond Film/ Kennametal Research and Production Venture

Notice is hereby given that, on February 27, 1995, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Product Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), the Norton Diamond Film Division ("Norton Diamond Film") of Saint-Gobain/Norton Industrial Ceramics Corporation, and Kennametal Inc. ("Kennametal"), have filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of a research and production venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Norton Diamond Film, Northboro, MA and Kennametal Inc., Latrobe PA. Norton Diamond Film is indirectly controlled by Compagnie de Saint-Gobain S.A., Paris, France; Kennametal is not controlled by any other person. The purpose of this joint venture is to combine Kennametal's special carbide formation and Norton Diamond Film's diamond deposition technology in the development and demonstration of the next generation of carbide round tools and wear parts. The activities of the joint venture will be partially funded by an award from the Advanced Technology Program, National Institute of Standards and Technology, Department of Commerce.

Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993; X Consortium, Inc.

Notice is hereby given that, on June 6, 1995, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), X Consortium, Inc. (the "Corporation") has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing changes in its membership. The notifications were filed for the purpose of extending the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances.

Specifically, the following are no longer members of the Corporation: Apple Computer, Inc.; ATR Institute International; Georgia Institute of Technology; Japan Computer Corp.; Locus Computing Corporation; M3I Systems, Inc.; Openware Technologies; and Phase X Systems.

No other changes have been made in either the membership or planned activity of the group research project. Membership in this group research project remains open, and the Corporation intends to file additional written notifications disclosing all changes in membership.

On September 15, 1993, the Corporation filed its original notification pursuant to Section 6(a) of the Act. The Department of Justice published a notice in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act on November 10, 1993 (58 Fed. Reg. 59737).

The last notification was filed with the Department on March 7, 1995. A notice was published in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act on April 27, 1995 (60 FR 20750).

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

[NAFTA-00392]

General Mills Incorporated, CFTO-South Chicago Plant, Chicago, IL; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of May 19, 1995, one of the petitioners requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for NAFTA-Transitional Adjustment Assistance for workers at the subject firm. The Department's Negative Determination was issued on April 26, 1995 and was published in the Federal Register on May 9, 1995 (60 FR 24653).

The petitioner claims that import data provided by the company were not accurate, and present evidence that imports of cereal from Mexico did impact General Mill's market share.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claims are of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 20th day of June 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

[NAFTA-00444]

Haggar Clothing Company, Robstown Manufacturing Company, A/K/A Greenville Pant Manufacturing Company, Robstown, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification of Eligibility to Apply for NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance on June 7, 1995, applicable to all workers at the subject firm. The amended notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

New information received from the State Agency show that some of the workers at Haggar Clothing Company had their unemployment insurance (UI) taxes paid to Greenville Pant Manufacturing Company.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to NAFTA-00444 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of workers of Haggar Clothing Company, Robstown Manufacturing Company, a/k/a Greenville Pant Manufacturing Company, located in Robstown, Texas who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 27, 1994 are eligible to apply for NAFTA-TAA under Section 250 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 20th day of June 1995.

Victor J. Trunzo,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
