

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION36 CFR Part 1253

RIN 3095-AA64

Location of Records and Hours of Use; Suitland Research RoomAGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration.ACTION: Interim final rule.

SUMMARY: The National Archives and Records Administration is revising its regulations on location of records and hours of use to modify the hours that the Suitland Research Room at the Washington National Records Center is open for archival research. Beginning the Saturday after Labor Day, the Suitland Research Room will be closed on Saturdays. Weekday hours are not affected. NARA is taking this action because Saturday use of the research room has diminished to the point that it is not cost effective to operate the research room on Saturdays. This action will allow staff resources to be reallocated to better serve the public. Additionally, NARA is updating information on its facilities outside the Washington, DC, area to add the Federal Records Center and Regional Archives at Pittsfield, MA, to correct other addresses and, in some instances, make minor adjustments to the hours of use.

DATES: The effective date of this rule is September 9, 1995. Comments on the interim rule must be received by October 10, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Submit comments to Director, Policy and Planning Division (PIRM-POL), National Archives at College Park Room 3200, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001. Comments may also be faxed to (301) 713-7270.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Ann Hadyka or Nancy Allard on (301) 713-6730.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Beginning September 9, 1995, the research room at the Washington National Records Center, in Suitland, Maryland will no longer be open for archival research on Saturdays. NARA is taking this action because Saturday use of the research room has diminished to the point that it is not cost-effective to operate the research room on Saturdays. Within the next year when all archival records currently at the Washington National Records Center have been relocated to the National Archives Building in Washington, DC, or to the National Archives at College Park facility, NARA will close the Suitland Research Room as an archival research room.

A significant number of records have been or are in the process of being moved from Suitland to College Park. These records include the Records of Foreign Service Posts; Records of the Army Staff; Records of the Office of Military Government of Germany, United States; Records of the War Relocation Authority; Records of the US Air Force; and Records of the Bureau of Land Management. Between April 29, 1995 and July 1, 1995, Saturday use of the Suitland Research Room ranged from 1 to 8 archival researchers, with an average of 6 researchers. The summer time period is traditionally peak use of the research room. As more of the heavily used records are moved from Suitland and the peak use period ends, even this level of use will not be sustained. When the Suitland Research Room closes on Saturdays, NARA staff will be reassigned from Suitland to either the College Park or the Washington, DC facility, where there is heavier Saturday research use.

Addresses of Presidential libraries, the National Personnel Records Centers, Federal Records Centers, and Regional Archives also have been updated. For some Presidential libraries and Federal Records Centers, the hours of use have been corrected to reflect current hours of operation.

This rule is being issued as an interim final rule without prior notice of proposed rulemaking as permitted by the Administrative Procedures Act (5 U.S.C. 553(b)(3)(B)) when the agency for good cause finds that notice and public comment thereon are impractical, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. Because this rule will have only a minor impact on the researchers using archival records in NARA's Washington, DC, area research rooms and early reprogramming of the resources will better serve the public, NARA finds good cause to make this rule effective without prior notice of proposed rulemaking.

NARA will issue a final rule confirming or amending this interim rule at the close of the comment period.

This rule is not a significant regulatory action for purposes of Executive Order 12866 of September 30, 1993, and has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget. As required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act, it is hereby certified that this rule will not have a significant impact on small entities.
