Corporation, Florists' Transworld Delivery, Inc. ("FTDI") and FTD Association should not be found in civil contempt for violating a consent decree entered by the court in 1990. That decree prohibited FTD, then a single entity, from exploiting its position to induce florists to forgo membership in competing floral wire associations. The United States' petition states that the three respondents violated the decree by promoting FTDI's incentive program called "FTD Only." Under the proposed enforcement order, agreed to by the parties, FTD will stop its practice of inducing member florists to use its floral wire service exclusively and will not adopt any similar program in the future. In addition, the corporate ties between FTDI and FTD Association will be significantly curtailed.

The public is invited to comment on the proposed enforcement order. Comments should be addressed to Christopher J. Kelly, Acting Chief, Civil Task Force I, U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, 3525 7th Street, N.W., Room 400, Washington, D.C. 20530 (202/514-8348). Comments must be received within sixty days.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: MSHA accident investigation procedures are designed to identify all relevant facts about a mining accident in an orderly manner and then to determine the contributory causes of a particular accident. After MSHA reviews and analyzes the facts, the Agency issues a report describing its findings and conclusions regarding the accident. The purpose of the report is to help prevent similar accidents from occurring in the future.

The investigation process itself is composed of three phases—physical inspection of the areas of the affected mine, analysis and testing of mining equipment which may have been involved in the accident, and interviews of persons who may have relevant information about the conditions or practices surrounding the accident. While these phases have not changed over the years, issues such as who should be present during witness interviews have been raised.

Specifically, in investigations involving fatalities, concerns have been raised over the attendance of mine operators and their representatives, miners' representatives, families of the victims and their representatives, and the news media. It is MSHA's experience that the attendance of these parties at a witness interview session
