

latitude in designing their WPRS systems. This survey will systematically gather information about how States have designed their WPRS systems—the policies and procedures adopted, and the process by which this occurred—and their progress to date in implementing these systems.

Written comments on the survey questionnaire should address the accuracy of the burden estimates and ways to minimize burden, including the use of automated collection techniques or the use of other forms of information technology.

Type of Review: New

Agency: Employment and Training Administration

Title: Survey of State Administrators

Frequency: Twice (once in Calendar Year 1996, once in Calendar Year 1997)

Affected Public: State Government

Number of Respondents: 159 (53 States and jurisdictions times 3 administrators each)

Estimated Time Per Respondent: For 106 of the respondents, the time burden will be 7 minutes each. For 53 respondents, the time burden will be 27 minutes each (those administrators responsible for coordinating the WPRS Initiative in the State or jurisdiction will need to complete a more comprehensive questionnaire)

Total Burden Hours: 72 (2 waves of surveys, 36 hours per wave)

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for Office of Management and Budget approval of the information collection request; they will also become a matter of public record.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of August, 1995.

Robert O. Deslongchamps,

Acting Director, Unemployment Insurance Service.
