Background

Temporary regulations in the Rules and Regulations section of this issue of the Federal Register amend the Excise Tax Procedural Regulations (26 CFR part 40) relating to deposits of excise taxes under section 6302. The temporary regulations contain special safe harbor rules for the additional deposit of taxes due in September of each year.

The text of those temporary regulations also serves as the text of these proposed regulations. The preamble to the temporary regulations explains the temporary regulations.

Special Analyses

It has been determined that this notice of proposed rulemaking is not a significant regulatory action as defined in EO 12866. Therefore, a regulatory assessment is not required. It also has been determined that section 553(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 5) and the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) do not apply to these regulations, and, therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis is not required. Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, this notice of proposed rulemaking will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business.

Comments and Requests for a Public Hearing

Before these proposed regulations are adopted as final regulations, consideration will be given to any written comments (a signed original and eight (8) copies) that are submitted timely to the IRS. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying. A public hearing may be scheduled if requested in writing by any person that timely submits written comments. If a public hearing is scheduled, notice of the date, time and place for the hearing will be published in the Federal Register.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Ruth Hoffman, Office of Assistant Chief Counsel (Passthroughs and Special Industries). However, other personnel from the IRS and Treasury Department participated in their development.

Exemption of Records System Under the Privacy Act

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of Justice proposes to exempt a Privacy Act system of records from subsections (c) (3) and (4), (d), (e) (1), (2), (3), (5), and (8), and (g) of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a. This system of records is the "Bureau of Prisons, Office of Internal Affairs Investigative Records, Justice/BOP-012." Information in this system relates to official Federal investigations and law enforcement matters of the Office of Internal Affairs (OIA) of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), pursuant to the Inspector General Act of 1978, 5 U.S.C. App., as amended by the Inspector General Act amendments of 1988. The exemptions are necessary to avoid interference with the law enforcement functions of the BOP. Specifically, the exemptions are necessary to prevent subjects of investigations from frustrating the investigatory process; to preclude the disclosure of investigative techniques; to protect the identities and physical safety of confidential informants and of law enforcement personnel; to ensure OIA's ability to obtain information from information sources; to protect the privacy of third parties; and to safeguard classified information as required by Executive Order 12356.

DATES: Submit any comments by September 28, 1995.
