Background

Chapter 4 and Annex 401 of the NAFTA, which entered into force on January 1, 1994, contain the rules of origin for application of the tariff provisions of the NAFTA to trade in goods.

Section 202(q) of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (the Act) authorizes the President, subject to the consultation and layover requirements of section 103 of the Act, to proclaim such modifications to the rules as may from time to time be agreed to by the NAFTA countries. One of the requirements set out in section 103 of the Act is that the President obtain advice regarding any proposed modification in the Rules contained in Annex 401 of the Act from the United States International Trade Commission.

The Commission was requested by the USTR, in his letter received on July 17,
