

Enforcement Act of 1994 (Pub. L. 103-322) authorizes the Department of Justice to make grants to increase the number of community oriented policing officers on the streets and to support innovative community policing projects. The COPS Office is offering the COPS/DV Initiative to provide one-year grants to agencies which have a demonstrated commitment to community policing to turn their focus, or strengthen their already progressive focus, towards domestic violence.

All state, local, Indian Tribal, and other public law enforcement agencies which are committed to using community policing to combat domestic violence are eligible to apply for funding in partnership with victim service agencies and organizations, domestic violence shelters, and non-profit, nongovernmental victim service providers. Law enforcement agency applicants must demonstrate that they are implementing an exemplary community policing program and that they currently train officers in community policing. Law enforcement agency applicants must submit with their application a memorandum of understanding between the agency and an eligible victim or community service organization, specifying the roles of all parties involved in the proposal and describing clearly the parameters of partnership between the participants.

Applicants must apply under one of three funding categories: (1) Domestic Violence Training with a Community Oriented Policing Philosophy (up to $2,000,000 in funding, not to exceed $250,000 per grant); (2) Problem Solving and Community Based Programs: Community Policing Partnerships and Problem Solving Initiatives Focusing on Domestic Violence (up to $5,000,000 in funding, not to exceed $200,000 per grant); or (3) Changing Police Organizations to be More Responsive to Domestic Violence (up to $3,000,000 in funding, not to exceed $150,000 per grant).

All applicants under the COPS/DV Initiative will be asked to provide an Application Summary Sheet, a Project Narrative, and a Budget Narrative. The Application Summary Sheet requests identifying information on the applicant agency; a brief description of the proposed project; and a brief description of the partnership between the law enforcement agency applicant and an eligible victim services organization. The Project Narrative requires a description of the innovative community policing project proposed and a narrative description of the law enforcement applicant agency's current community policing plan and practices.

The Budget Narrative requires a description of the proposed project budget, including the identification of local contributions of funds, if any, to the proposed project.

Projects will be funded for a one-year period. The application deadline for the COPS/DV Initiative is November 17, 1995. Applications postmarked after this deadline will not be considered. An award under the COPS/DV Initiative will not affect the eligibility of any agency to apply to other COPS programs.

Dated: September 1, 1995.

L. Anthony Sutin,

Acting Director.
