

premium payment year, the participant notice requirement did not apply for that year and you can check box (a). Other exemptions are described in the Disclosure to Participants regulation. Note in particular that the regulation contains exemptions for certain new and newly-covered plans and, for the 1995 plan year, for certain small plans (generally under 100 participants).

The PBGC is requesting OMB to approve this revision of Schedule A and related instructions without any change in the expiration date of OMB's current approval. Other changes to the premium forms for 1996 (e.g., allowing plans to claim overpayment credits on Form 1-ES) will be minor and non-substantive.

The participant notice certification will require simply that a box be checked to indicate whether, for the prior year, the plan was exempt from, or complied with, the participant notice requirement. The burden of redrafted item 10 as it will appear on the 1996 Schedule A, including the new certification, will therefore be no greater than the burden of existing item 10 as it appears on the 1995 Schedule A.

The PBGC estimates that it receives a total of about 66,300 premium filings annually from a total of 56,000 single-employer and 2,000 multiemployer plans (some of which make an estimated filing in addition to the final filing), an average of about 1.14 filings per plan. The PBGC also estimates that the total burden of the collection of information, including the new participant notice certification, is about 80,670 hours, or an average of about 1.22 hours per filing. (The estimated burden includes recordkeeping under 29 CFR § 2610.11.)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 14th day of September 1995.
