BILLING CODE 6717-01-M

[Docket No. CP95-650-001]

Questar Pipeline Company; Notice of Amendment to Application

September 25, 1995.

Take notice that on September 21, 1995, Questar Pipeline Company (Questar Pipeline), 79 South State Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, filed in Docket No. CP95-650-001 and amendment to its application in Docket No. CP95-650-000, pursuant to Section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act, seeking authority to abandon any certifications that may still surround its Bonanza-Divide Creek gathering facilities located in eastern Utah and western Colorado, all as more fully set forth in the amendment that is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

It is stated that Questar Pipeline, on July 31, 1995, in Docket No. CP95-650-000, and Questar Gas Management Company (QGM), on August 2, 1995, in Docket No. CP95-658-000, filed, respectively, an abandonment application and a petition for declaratory order collectively providing for the transfer (spin down) of all of Questar Pipeline's gathering facilities, as well as specific anomalous "certificated gathering" and transmission facilities, to Questar Pipeline's wholly owned, unregulated subsidiary, QGM. Questar

Pipeline explains that among the facilities proposed to be spun down to QGM are certain gathering facilities, located between Bonanza, Utah, and the Divide Creek area of western Colorado, that have been thoroughly described in QGM's Docket No. CP95-658-000 Petition for Declaratory Order.

Questar Pipeline states that since their acquisition, despite the fact that, (1) it has accounted for the facilities as non-jurisdictional gathering and (2) in its view, the gathering facilities have consistently met the Commission's functional tests for qualifying gathering facilities, certain 20 to 30 year-old certifications may still be linked to these facilities. Therefore, it is explained, Questar Pipeline, in its amendment, formally requests authority to abandon all certificate authorizations that may exist in connection with Questar Pipeline's Bonanza-Divide Creek gathering facilities.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said amendment to the application should on or before October 5, 1995, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Questar Pipeline to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Lois D. Cashell,
Secretary.
