[Docket No. 93-68, Notice 7]

Defect and Noncompliance Reports; Record Retention; Defect and Noncompliance Notification Establishment of Effective Date

AGENCY: National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA).

ACTION: Establishment of effective date of certain amendments currently under reconsideration; clarification.

SUMMARY: This document clarifies that the effective date of several of the amendments to NHTSA's defect investigation and reporting regulations that were published in the Federal Register on April 5, 1995 (60 FR 17254) will be January 2, 1996. These amendments—to 49 CFR Part 576 (record retention) and 49 CFR sections 573.5(c)(8) (recall schedule); 573.7 (leased vehicle recordkeeping); and 577.5(h) (recall notification of lessees)—are currently the subject of petitions for reconsideration. To allow the agency the opportunity to consider the issues raised by the petitions for reconsideration, NHTSA indefinitely suspended the effectiveness of those amendments on July 7, 1995 (60 FR 35458). In response to advice from the Office of the Federal Register that it is not proper to have rules in place without a definite effective date, NHTSA is establishing January 2, 1996 as the effective date of the identified amendments. All other amendments made by the April 5, 1995 final rule went into effect on July 7, 1995.

EFFECTIVE DATES: Effective May 4, 1995, the effective date of the April 5, 1995 amendments to 49 CFR Part 576 and 49 CFR 573.5(c)(8), 573.7 and 577.5(h) is January 2, 1996, and the effective date of all other amendments made by the April 5, 1995 final rule is July 7, 1995.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: By final rule published in the Federal Register on April 5, 1995 (60 FR 17254), NHTSA amended several provisions of its defect investigation and reporting regulations. The effective date of those amendments was originally to be May 5, 1995.

However, shortly before May 5, NHTSA received several petitions for reconsideration of certain of those amendments as well as requests for postponement of the effective date of the entire final rule.

NHTSA was unable to act on those requests prior to May 5. Thus, by notice published on May 16, 1995 (60 FR 26002), the agency rescinded the May 5, 1995 effective date and adopted a new effective date of July 7, 1995 for all of the April 5 amendments.

In June 1995, NHTSA decided that it wished to gather and consider additional information on certain of the amendments that were identified in the petitions for reconsideration. The agency decided that those amendments—to 49 CFR Part 576 (record retention) and 49 CFR sections 573.5(c)(8) (recall schedule); 573.7 (leased vehicle recordkeeping); and 577.5(h) (recall notification of lessees)—should not go into effect until the completion of the reconsideration process. Therefore, by notice published in the Federal Register on July 7, 1995 (60 FR 35458), NHTSA suspended the effective date of those four amendments "until further notice."

NHTSA has been advised by the Office of the Federal Register that it is not appropriate to have rules in place without a definite effective date and that
