Gray Portland Cement and Clinker From Mexico; Notice of Court Decision

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of court decision and suspension of liquidation.

SUMMARY: On July 12, 1995, in the case of The Ad Hoc Committee of AZ-NM-TX-FL Producers of Gray Portland Cement v. United States, Slip Op. 95-125, (Ad Hoc), the United States Court of International Trade (the Court) affirmed the Department of Commerce's (the Department's) results of redetermination pursuant to remand, and prior remand determinations of the Department, of the final results of the first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on gray portland cement and clinker from Mexico. The period covered by the first review is April 12, 1990 through July 31, 1991. The Court ruled that the challenge by defendant-intervenor CEMEX, S.A. of the Department's treatment of value-added taxes was untimely filed and, therefore, sustained the Department's final results of redetermination pursuant to remand.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 12, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert James or John Kugelman, Office of Antidumping Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-5253.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 28, 1993, the Department published in the Federal Register the final results of its first administrative review of the antidumping duty order on gray portland cement and clinker from Mexico (58 FR 25803 (April 28, 1993)). In those final results, the Department set forth its determination of the weighted-average margins for the two respondent companies for the period of review, April 12, 1990 through July 31, 1991, and announced its intent to instruct the U.S. Customs Service to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries.

Petitioners in these proceedings subsequently filed suit with the Court challenging these final results. Thereafter, the Court published an Order and Opinion dated September 26, 1994 in Ad Hoc, Ct. No. 93-05-00273, Slip Op. 94-151, remanding the Department's determination with instructions to: (1) Consider CEMEX's claimed deductions for pre-sale home market transportation costs under the circumstances-of-sale (COS) provision of the Department's regulations; (2) apply a value-added-tax (VAT) adjustment consistent with the methodology established in Torrington Co. v. United States, 853 F. Supp. 446 (CIT 1994); (3) reclassify certain transactions designated as exporter's sales price (ESP) transactions as purchase price transactions and reconsider the selection of best information available (BIA) for certain other sales; and (4) reconsider the selection of BIA data for missing added material costs. On January 5, 1995, the Department filed its remand results with the Court. On January 25, 1995, CEMEX challenged certain aspects of the Department's remand results, including our treatment of VAT.

On May 15, 1995, the Court ordered a second remand so that the Department could make technical corrections to its final remand results (Slip Op. 95-91). The Department filed its redetermination with the Court on June 13, 1995; the Court, on July 12, 1995, affirmed the Department's remand results, and issued a judgment that CEMEX's January 25, 1995 challenge on the issue of value-added taxes was untimely filed and, therefore, moot.

Suspension of Liquidation

In its decision in Timken Co. v. United States, Court No. 89-1489 (January 4, 1990), the Federal Circuit held that the Department must publish notice of a decision of the Court or Federal Circuit which is not "in harmony" with the Department's determination. Publication of this notice fulfills this obligation. The Federal Circuit also held that in such a case, the Department must suspend liquidation until there is a "conclusive" decision in the action. CEMEX has filed an appeal with the Federal Circuit that challenges the Court's May 15, 1995 and July 12, 1995 decisions. Therefore, the Department will continue to suspend liquidation pending a final decision of the Federal Circuit in this case. In the event of a "conclusive" decision affirming the Court's July 12, 1995 and May 15, 1995 decisions, the Department will publish in the Federal Register an amended final results of administrative review that reflects the results of the Court's May 15, 1995 and July 12, 1995 decisions.

Dated: October 4, 1995.

Paul L. Joffe,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
