4. At 8 a.m., on January 11, 1996, the lands described in paragraphs 2 and 3 will be opened to the operation of the public land laws generally, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, other segregations of record, and the requirements of applicable law. All valid applications received at or prior to 8 a.m. on January 11, 1996, shall be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. Those received thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

5. At 8:00 a.m., on January 11, 1996, in the lands described in paragraph 2 will be opened to location and entry under the general mining laws, subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, other segregations
applicable law. Appropriation of any of the lands described in paragraph 2 under the general mining laws prior to the date and time of restoration is unauthorized. Any such attempted appropriation, including attempted adverse possession under 30 U.S.C. 38 (1988), shall vest no rights against the United States. Acts required to establish a location and to initiate a right of possession are governed by State law where not in conflict with Federal law.
The Bureau of Land Management will not intervene in disputes between rival locators over possessory rights since Congress has provided for such determinations in local courts.

6. The purpose of this exchange was to acquire non-federal lands that have high values for wildlife, livestock grazing, and recreational use. This exchange created a more logical and efficient land management pattern that will better serve the public's interest.
