OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Request for Public Comment: Deregulation Measures in Japan

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Request for written comments regarding deregulation measures in Japan.

SUMMARY: The Government of the United States plans to submit to the Government of Japan comments regarding economic deregulation measures by the Government of Japan. The United States Trade Representative (USTR) solicits written comments from interested persons regarding specific laws, regulations, or regulatory practices in Japan, the removal or modification of which would improve market access for United States products or services.

DATES: Comments are due on or before noon on November 3, 1995.

ADDRESSES: Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20508.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Byron Sigel, Director for Japanese Affairs, (202) 395-5070.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 31, 1995, the Government of Japan announced a package of economic deregulation measures. Before the announcement of those measures, the Government of the United States held several consultations with the Government of Japan regarding deregulation and competition policy issues. On November 15, 1994, and again on April 21, 1995, the Government of the United States, under the coordination of the Office of the United States Trade Representative, submitted to the Government of Japan specific written comments regarding the deregulation process, competition policy issues, administrative reform process, and specific suggestions for deregulation measures. The comments submitted by the Government of the United States are available for public inspection and copying in the USTR Reading Room: Room 101, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20506. An appointment to review the list may be made by calling Brenda Webb (202) 395-6186. The USTR Reading Room is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The Government of the United States plans to consult further with the Government of Japan regarding the measures announced last spring as well as additional deregulation and competition policy measures and issues. The Government of the United States plans to submit to the Government of Japan further specific comments addressing these areas. USTR will use the comments solicited pursuant to this notice in developing the comments that the Government of the United States will submit to the Government of Japan.
