BILLING CODE 4160-20-M

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

Office of the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner

[Docket No. FR-3990-D-01]

Redelegation of Authority

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner.

ACTION: Notice of redelegation of authority.

SUMMARY: This notice redelgates authority from the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner to certain positions within the Office of the Federal Housing Administration Comptroller, for the purpose of executing documents to effectuate the transfer of title to Title I loans sold by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 7, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William Richbourg, Director, Management Control Staff, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW., Room 5144, Washington, DC 20410, telephone (202) 401-0577. A telecommunications device for the hearing-impaired (TDD) is available at 202-708-4594. (These are not toll-free numbers.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On July 7, 1994, at 59 FR 34857, the Assistant Secretary for Housing-Federal Housing Commissioner redelegated to the Director, Office of Mortgage Insurance Accounting and Servicing, Office of the FHA Comptroller, at headquarters, and to each of the Directors of the three HUD FHA Debt Management Centers, in the field, certain authority with regard to debt arising from the payment of claims under Title I of the National Housing Act. Among other things, they were granted the authority to execute documents necessary to transfer or subordinate title in and to any debt, contract, claim or security instrument obtained by the Secretary, and to satisfy and/or execute deeds, liens and notes.

FHA is now in the process of engaging in a sale of approximately 16,000 Title I notes, based upon sealed bids which are to be opened November 7, 1995. In order to effectuate the transfer of these specified Title I loans, it is necessary to provide additional HUD employees with the authority to execute all of the necessary documents. Among other things, these employees will have the authority to execute powers of attorney to enable the purchaser(s) to assign the Title I loans to themselves. In addition, FHA may engage in future sales of Title I loans, which will again require the assistance of these HUD employees.

Accordingly, the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner redelegates authority as follows:

Section A. Authority Redelegated

The Director, Office of Mortgage Insurance Accounting and Servicing; the Director, Title I Accounting and Servicing Division; the Deputy Director, Title I Accounting and Servicing Division; the Chief, Title I Operations Branch; the Chief, Title I Notes Branch; and the Director, Management Control Staff, all of the Office of the Federal Housing Administration Comptroller, are each redelegated the power and authority to execute all documents necessary to effectuate the transfer of title in and to Title I loans sold by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. This redelegation includes, but is not limited to, the authority to execute powers of attorney to enable the purchaser or purchasers of the loan to execute the necessary assignments of notes, and mortgages or deeds of trust.

Section B. Limited Authority to Further Redelegate

The authority granted in Section A., above, may be further redelegated in writing by the Director, Office of Mortgage Insurance Accounting and Servicing, pursuant to this redelegation. The authority granted in Section A. may not be further redelegated by any of the other officials listed within Section A.

Authority: Sec.7(d), Department of Housing and Urban Development Act (42 U.S.C. 3535(d).)

Dated: November 7, 1995.

Nicolas P. Retsinas,

Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner.

Announcement of Funding Awards for Fiscal Year 1995 Community Outreach Partnership Centers

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Policy Development and Research, HUD.

ACTION: Announcement of funding awards.

SUMMARY: In accordance with section 102(a)(4)(C) of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Reform Act of 1989, this document notifies the public of funding awards for Fiscal Year 1995 Community Outreach Partnership Centers Program. The purpose of this document is to announce the names and addresses of the award winners and the amount of the awards which are to be used to establish and operate Community Outreach Partnership Centers that will: (1) Conduct competent and qualified research and investigation on theoretical or practical problems in large and small cities; and (2) facilitate partnerships and outreach activities between institutions of higher education, local communities, and local governments to address urban problems.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marcia Marker Feld, Ph.D., Director, Office of University Partnerships, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, room 8130, 451 Seventh Street, SW, Washington, DC 20410, telephone (202) 708-3061. To provide service for persons who are hearing- or speech-impaired, this number may be reached via TDD by dialing the Federal Information Relay Service on 1-800-877-TDDY, 1-800-877-8339, or 202-708-9300. (Telephone numbers, other than "800" TDD numbers are not toll free.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Community Outreach Partnership

Centers Program was enacted in the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (Pub. L. 102-550, approved October 28, 1992) and is administered by the Office of University Partnerships under the Assistant Secretary for Public Development and Research. In addition to this program, the Office of University Partnerships administers HUD's ongoing grant programs to institutions of higher education as well as creates initiatives through which colleges and universities can bring their traditional missions of teaching, research, service, and outreach to bear on the pressing local problems in their communities.

The Community Outreach Partnership Centers Program provides funds for: Research activities which have practical application for solving specific problems in designated communities and neighborhoods; outreach, technical assistance and information exchange activities which are designed to address specific problems in designated communities and neighborhoods. The specific problems that the local program must focus on are problems associated with housing, economic development, neighborhood revitalization, infrastructure, health care, job training, education, crime prevention, planning, and community organizing. On December 22, 1994, HUD published a Notice of Funding Availability announcing the availability of $7 million in Fiscal Year 1995 funds for the Community Outreach Partnership Centers Program (59 FR 66124). The Department reviewed, evaluated and scored the applications received based on the criteria in the NOFA. As a result, HUD has funded the fourteen applicants identified below, each in the amount of $500,000. In accordance with section 102(a)(4)(C) of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Reform Act of 1989 (Pub. L. 101-235, approved December 15, 1989), the Department is publishing details concerning the recipients of funding awards, as follows:
