

directed each agency to consider the following issues:

- Is the regulation obsolete?
- Could its intended goal be achieved in more efficient, less obtrusive ways?
- Are there private sector alternatives, such as market mechanisms, that can better achieve the public good envisioned by the regulation?
- Could private business, setting its own standards and being subject to public accountability, do the job as well?
- Could the states or local governments do the job, making Federal regulation unnecessary?
- Can certain regulatory provisions be relaxed without unduly impacting safety?

Improvements to Customer Service

At the meeting, RSPA will solicit comments on the kind and quality of services its customers want and their level of satisfaction with the services currently provided by the hazardous materials safety program. RSPA will use the comments received to establish service standards and measure results against them; provide choices in both the sources of service and the means of delivery; make information, services, and complaint systems easily accessible; and provide a means to address customer complaints. RSPA's current customer services include providing guidance in understanding and complying with the HMR and processing exemptions, approvals, registrations, grant applications and enforcement actions. Other customer services include conduct of multimodal hazardous materials seminars, operation of the Hazardous Materials Information Exchange (HMIX) electronic bulletin board, and development and dissemination of training and information materials.

Conduct of the Meeting

The meeting will be informal and is intended to produce a dialogue between agency personnel and those persons directly affected by the hazardous materials safety programs, regulations and customer services. The meeting officer may find it necessary to limit the time allocated each speaker to ensure that all participants have an opportunity to speak. Conversely, the meeting may conclude before the time scheduled if all persons wishing to participate have been heard.

The meeting will be held on January 25, 1996, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the 7th Floor Conference Room of the Glenn Anderson Federal Building (11th Coast Guard District), 501 West Ocean Boulevard, Long Beach, California. A
