Improving the Hazardous Materials Safety Program; Public Meetings Related to Regulatory Review and Customer Service

AGENCY: Research and Special Programs Administration (RSPA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of public meeting.

SUMMARY: This notice announces a public meeting in Long Beach, California, to seek information from the public on regulatory reform and improved customer service for RSPA's hazardous materials safety program. This meeting replaces the meeting previously scheduled for November 16, 1995, in San Diego, California, which was canceled due to a lapse in funding for the Department of Transportation.

ADDRESSES: See Supplementary Information for specific time, location, and agenda.

DATES: January 25, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Edmund J. Richards, Interagency Hazardous Materials Program Coordinator, (202) 366-0656; or Suezett Edwards, Training and Information Specialist, (202) 366-4900; Hazardous Materials Safety, RSPA, Department of Transportation, Washington, DC 20590-0001.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 4, 1995, President Clinton issued a memorandum to heads of departments and agencies calling for a review of all agency regulations and elimination or revision of those that are outdated or in need of reform. The President also directed that front line regulators " * * * get out of Washington and create grassroots partnerships" with people affected by agency regulations.

On September 11, 1993, the President signed an Executive Order on setting customer service standards. The Executive Order promotes continuing reform of the executive branch's management practices and operations to provide service to the public that matches or exceeds the best service available in the private sector. RSPA is seeking information from individuals and businesses impacted by its hazardous materials safety program to determine the kind and quality of services they want and their level of satisfaction with existing services.

An initial series of outreach meetings to address these two topics was held in April and May of this year in San Francisco, California; Chicago, Illinois; Clearwater and Tampa, Florida; Houston, Texas, and Minneapolis, Minnesota. Many participants requested that these meeting be continued on a regular basis and scheduled in areas of the country not previously covered. As a result, a second series of meetings is being held. Meetings have been held in Cambridge, Massachusetts; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Seattle, Washington; and Charlotte, North Carolina. The meeting to be held in Long Beach, California, will complete the second series.

Areas of Regulatory Concern

In calling on agencies to review, revise, and, when necessary, cut obsolete regulations, the President
