

jury empaneled in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on numerous federal felony charges. According to a subsequent plea agreement, I.S.A. and other entities were required to be sold to unrelated third parties. In 1994, the United States entered into an Agreement and Covenant Not To Sue under CERCLA with Browning-Ferris Industries of New York, Inc.; Browning-Ferris Industries of Peterson N.J., Inc.; and Browning-Ferris Industries of South Jersey, Inc. (collectively referred to as "BFI") regarding BFI's prospective purchase of the assets of I.S.A. and the other entities. In exchange for this Agreement and covenant Not To Sue, BFI paid $250,000 to the United States, from which $55,000 was paid toward past response costs incurred by EPA at the Hertel Site. Upon the sale of the assets of I.S.A. and the other entities, I.S.A. and the other entities paid $1,000,000 of the sale price into an escrow account to be used to resolve certain liability to the United States pursuant to CERCLA at several sites, including the Hertel Superfund Site, the Warwick Superfund Site in the Town of Warwick, New York, the Ramapo Superfund Site in the Town of Ramapo, New York, and the Kin-Buc Superfund Site in Edison, New Jersey. The balance of the proceeds of BFI's purchase of the assets of I.S.A. and the other entities has been used to satisfy a $5,000,000 criminal fine, $3,500,000 in federal and state tax liability, and $300,000 of liabilities to other creditors.

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION

[Notice 95108]

National Environmental Policy Act; International Space Station

AGENCY: National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

ACTION: Notice of availability of Tier 2 draft environmental impact statement.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), as amended (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.), the Council on Environmental Quality Regulations for Implementing the Procedural Provisions of NEPA (40 CFR Parts 1500-1508), and NASA policy and procedures (14 CFR part 1216, Subpart 1216.3), NASA has prepared and issued a Tier 2 draft environmental impact statement (DEIS) for the International Space Station (ISS). The proposed action by NASA is to continue to provide U.S. participation in the assembly and operation of the ISS. This Tier 2 DEIS addresses changes to the Space Station Program and potential environmental impacts that could not be addressed in detail at the time of the Tier 1 final environmental impact statement (FEIS). These factors include modifications to the Space Station itself, its assembly and operation, and an assessment of the probability and consequences of reentry into Earth's atmosphere.

DATE: Comments on the Tier 2 DEIS must be submitted in writing to NASA on or before January 22, 1996, or 45 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's notice of availability of the ISS Tier 2 DEIS.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be addressed to Mr. David Ruszczyk, NASA Johnson Space Center, Code OF, Houston, Texas, 77058-3696. The Tier 2 DEIS may be reviewed at the following locations:

(a) NASA Headquarters, Library, Room 1J20, 300 E street SW, Washington DC 20546.

(b) NASA, Johnson Space Center, Building 111, Industry Assistance Office, Houston, TX 77058.

(c) Spaceport U.S.A., Room 2001, John F. Kennedy Space Center, FL 32899. Please call Lisa Fowler beforehand at 407-867-2468 so that arrangements can be made.

(k) NASA, Stennis Space Center, MS 39529 (601-688-2164).

Limited copies of the Tier 2 DEIS are available, on a first request basis, by contacting David Rusczyk at the address or telephone number indicated herein.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Rusczyk, 713-244-7756.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: NASA issued the Final Tier 1 Environmental Impact Statement for Space Station Freedom, in March 1991 (the "Tier 1 FEIS") followed by the associated Record of Decision to proceed with full-scale design and development of the concept known as Space Station Freedom.

At the time the Tier 1 FEIS was prepared, detailed design information was not available. As a consequence, some issues relating to the potential environmental effects of Space Station Freedom were deferred to the Tier 2 environmental impact statement. These issues included the impacts of any significant design modifications that might be incorporated as the design matured, and a quantitative analysis of the probability and consequences of inadvertent reentry into the Earth's atmosphere during assembly and operation. Other issues that were deferred included venting of nontoxic gases during operation and change to a hydrazine propulsion system.

On March 9, 1993, the President directed NASA to undertake a redesign of the Space Station Program in such a manner that reductions in the projected costs of Space Station Freedom could be realized. The result was the current ISS, which involves design modifications and agreements to include Russia as a partner.

The proposed action considered in this Tier 2 DEIS is to continue to provide U.S. participation in the implementation of assembly and operation of the ISS. The Tier 2 DEIS considers the alternative to the proposed action, the "No-Action" alternative (i.e., cancellation of U.S. participation in the ISS).

Significant design changes that have occurred since the Tier 1 FEIS include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following: the number of research laboratories has been increased from three to six; the number of logistics modules has been increased from one to two; the pressurized volume has been almost doubled; the crew size has been increased from four to six; and the orbital inclination has been changed from 28.5 degrees to 51.6 degrees, improving access by Russian launch vehicles and additional mission control capabilities. Assembly of the ISS contemplates 27 NASA Shuttle launches (reduced from 29), 15 Russian launches, 1 European Space Agency launch, and 1 launch of a vehicle yet to be determined. This would increase the total number of launches through completion of assembly from 32 to 44. Accordingly, resupply flights to the completed ISS will now include Russian as well as NASA flights; whereas Space Station Freedom was to be resupplied exclusively by NASA Space Shuttle flights.

The design of the ISS has progressed to the point where it is now possible to conduct a quantitative analysis of the probability and consequences of inadvertent reentry into the Earth's atmosphere. The Tier 2 DEIS assesses the probabilities and potential impacts associated with inadvertent reentry, and addresses potential decommissioning options, including the plan presented in the Tier 1 FEIS. Other issues addressed in the Tier 2 DEIS include the following: the cumulative effects of the U.S. launches associated with the assembly and operation of the ISS, the change to the Unsymmetrical Dimethylhydrazine/Nitrogen Tetroxide propulsion system, and the venting and outgassing of nontoxic gases from the ISS. The Tier 2 DEIS addresses environmental effects on the United States and the integrated ISS impacts on the global commons.

Associate Administrator for Management Systems and Facilities.
