Iroquois states that the purpose of the proposed changes is to establish a new park and loan service that would be performed by Iroquois under the proposed Rate Schedule PAL. PAL service will permit Iroquois customers to utilize Iroquois' linepack on an interruptible basis as a form of short-term storage. Iroquois states that this service is similar to other services which have been approved by the Commission in recent cases. See, e.g., Pacific Gas Transmission Company, 66 FERC ¶ 61,356 (1994); 68 FERC ¶ 61,197 (1994). In addition to the new rate schedule, the filing includes (i) numerous changes to the General Terms and Conditions of Iroquois' tariff to conform it to the new park and loan service, and (ii) a pro forma park and loan service contract. Iroquois states that copies of this filing were served upon all customers and interested state regulatory agencies. Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protect with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. Pursuant to Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations, all such motions or protests must be filed not later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Mojave Pipeline Company; Notice of Tariff Filing

December 6, 1995.

Take notice that on December 1, 1995, Mojave Pipeline Company (Mojave) tendered for filing a notice of tariff filing concerning natural gas services proposed to be rendered pursuant to Mojave's FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1. Mojave is tendering revised tariff sheets for filing and acceptance to become effective January 1, 1996.

Mojave states that its proposed Tariff Sheets implement two, new ''Hub Series,'' including Authorized Loan Service under Rate Schedule ALS–1 and Authorized Parking Service under Rate Schedule APS–1, to be provided by Mojave pursuant to its blanket transportation certificate under Part 284 of the Commission's Regulations. In addition, Mojave states that its filing includes modifications to the Operating Tolerances provisions set forth in Section 20 of the General Terms and Conditions of its tariff which provide for Imbalance Trading as a further operational accommodation available to firm and interruptible shippers on Mojave's system. Mojave proposes to change two-tiered rates for Authorized Loan Service and Authorized Parking Service consisting of a minimum $0.001/MMBtu and maximum $0.329/MMBtu ''First Day'' rate; and a minimum $0.001/MMBtu and maximum $0.1645/MMBtu ''Subsequent Day'' rate. Mojave further proposes to treat revenues derived from such services as interruptible transportation revenues for purposes of revenue allocations and crediting under Rate Schedule FT–1. Mojave purposes no separate rate for Imbalance Trading, except for a $0.02/MMBtu ''marketing fee'' which trading at the request of an affected shipper.

Mojave states that copies of the notice were served upon all of Mojave's firm and interruptible transportation customers and all interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. Pursuant to Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations, all such motions or protests must be filed not later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding.

Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

December 6, 1995.

Take notice that on November 30, 1995, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National), pursuant to Section 12.5 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, tendered for filing as a limited application, pursuant to Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, a proposed direct bill to recover unassigned gas costs effective on January 1, 1996.

National states that the proposed limited Section 4 application provides for the recovery of unassigned gas costs incurred by National from the time it restructured its services on August 1, 1993, until the time CNG Transmission Corporation, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company implemented their restructured services.

National further states that $184,647.89 of unassigned gas costs billed by those pipelines during that period, including interest, are to be recovered from National's customers pursuant to the allocation method set forth on Sheet Nos. 167 through 179 of National's tariff.

National further states that copies of this compliance filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and the regulatory commission's of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 or 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211). Pursuant to Section 154.210 of the Commission's regulations, all such motions or protests must be filed not later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriated action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
