The award has an estimated overall total value of up to $10,000,000, of which DOE's share of the estimated two year award will be approximately 100%. The award will assist the efforts of the EIEDC to transition the economy of Eastern Idaho away from a significant level of dependency on the Idaho National Engineering Laboratories (INEL) through diversification.

Privacy Act of 1974; Amendment of Existing System of Records

AGENCY: Department of Energy (DOE).

ACTION: Amendment of one existing system of records.

SUMMARY: Federal Agencies are required by the Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-579, 5 U.S.C. 552a) to publish notice in the Federal Register of proposed amendments to the routine uses of existing systems of records. The Department of Energy proposes to amend the routine uses of one of its systems of records, DOE-15, Payroll and Pay-Related Data For Employees Of Terminated Contractors, to permit disclosure of certain categories of records in the system for epidemiological and other health studies and surveys and to health studies advisory entities as routine uses of these categories of records.

DATES: The proposed revisions will become effective without further notice 40 days after publication in the Federal Register (January 24, 1996), unless comments are received on or before that date that would result in a contrary determination and a notice is published to that effect.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be directed to the following address: Director, FOIA/Privacy Act Division, Office of Executive Secretariat, U.S. Department of Energy, HR-78, 1000 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20585. Written comments will be available for inspection at the above address between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: (1) Heather Stockwell, Acting Director, Office of Epidemiologic Studies, EH-62, U.S. Department of Energy, 19901 Germantown Road, Germantown, MD 20874-1290, (301) 903-3721 or (2) GayLa D. Sessoms, Director, FOIA/Privacy Act Division, HR-78, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, DC 20585, (202) 586-5955 or (3) Harold Halpern, Office of General Counsel, GC-80, U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20585, (202) 586-7406.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Energy proposes to amend the routine uses of one of its systems of record, DOE-15, Payroll and Pay-Related Data For Employees Of Terminated Contractors, to permit disclosure of certain categories of records in this system for epidemiological and other health studies and surveys and to health studies advisory entities as routine uses of these categories of records.

Previously, the Department amended 12 other systems of records to permit disclosure of all categories of records in the 12 systems for health studies and to health studies advisory entities. See 60 FR 33510 (June 28, 1995). The Department received no comments concerning that proposal. The currently proposed amendments, as detailed below, would permit only certain categories of records in this system to be disclosed for health studies and to advisory entities.

Categories of records in DOE-15 to be made available for the new routine uses include employment history, job titles, and discrete portions of payroll data reflecting attendance, illness, or other matters of the type described above. Records that could reflect adversely on their subjects, such as disciplinary actions, reprimands, admonitions, adverse actions, performance appraisals, security infraction notices and similar matters, will not be made available for the proposed new routine uses.

The Department's epidemiology and health surveillance program was established to determine the health effects of the Department's activities on workers and populations having access, or in proximity, to the Department's facilities. Epidemiological studies are an important means of determining the status of, and improving, public health. Epidemiological studies permit the scientific evaluation of the effects of exposure to potentially harmful materials by determining and quantifying health effects associated with such exposures. Health surveys, which are used to assess immediate health issues, are designed to discover the occupational source of outbreaks of illness, injury, or death, and to describe the extent of exposure to specific substances at a single point in time. Surveillance is used to identify new and emerging health problems by monitoring groups of workers, who have the same job or exposures, for changes in their illness and injury patterns over time.

The proposed health study routine use amendments to the system will assist the Department in studying and monitoring individual employee and aggregate population health risks from exposures to radiation or other hazards that may have occurred as a result of the Department's operations.

Pursuant to Memoranda of Understanding with the Department of Health and Human Services ("HHS"), and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry ("ATSDR"), studies, surveys and surveillances will be conducted for DOE by units of the Public Health Service, including the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and the National Center for Environmental Health of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and ATSDR, and their contractors, grantees, and cooperative agreement holders. States also may perform studies as the Department's or the Department of Health and Human Services' contractors, grantees, or cooperative agreement holders.

The studies are focussed on a variety of areas that are important for assessing the real and potential health risks to workers and the public resulting from the Department's energy-related technologies and activities. The studies should provide information that is necessary for long-range energy planning pursuant to continued development of the national energy strategy. The health studies include all Department facilities and workers and other special populations that have relevance to the Department's mission.

The proposed new routine uses of records in this system of records are:

(1) Discrete portions of payroll and pay related data reflecting employment history, date of birth, job titles, job descriptions, attendance, accidents, illnesses, medical conditions, exposure to toxic agents and similar matters, may be disclosed to facilitate health hazard evaluations, epidemiological studies, or public health activities required by law performed by personnel, contractor personnel, grantees, and cooperative agreement holders of components of the Department of Health and Human Services, including the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and the National Center for Environmental Health of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry pursuant to Memoranda of Understanding between the Department and the Department of Health and Human Services or its components. Records that may reflect adversely upon individuals, such as records concerning disciplinary actions, reprimands, admonitions, adverse actions, performance appraisals, security infraction notices, supervisor-employee discussions, and similar matters, will not be made available for the proposed new routine uses.
