

protection of investors or in the public interest. Furthermore, the Commission reserves the right to suspend or revoke this exemption or to censure or impose limitations upon the activities, functions, and operations of CCOS if the Commission finds that CCOS has violated or is unable to comply with any of the provisions set forth in this Order or in its own rules or that CCOS has failed without reasonable justification to enforce compliance with any provision of its own rules by one of its participants.

IV. Conclusion

The Commission finds that CCOS's application for exemption from registration as a clearing agency meets the standards and requirements deemed appropriate for such an exemption including those standards set forth under Section 17A of the Act.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(a)(1) of the Act, that the application for exemption from registration as a clearing agency filed by the Clearing Corporation for Options and Securities (File No. 600-27) be, and hereby is, approved subject to the conditions listed in this Order.

By the Commission.
Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.
