Viking Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Filing

December 18, 1995.

Take notice that on December 11, 1995, Viking Gas Transmission Company (Viking) filed a report of interruptible throughput and revenues for the period November 1, 1994 through October 31, 1995. Viking also stated that Viking did not have sufficient net interruptible revenues during that period to trigger an obligation, under Article 5, Section 5 of Viking's Rate Schedule IT, to credit net interruptible revenues to Viking's firm shippers.

Viking states that copies of the filing have been mailed to all of its jurisdictional customers and to affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Pursuant to § 154.210 of the Commission's regulations, all such motions or protests must be filed not later than 12 days after the date of the filing noted above. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Proposed To Revise the Following Currently Approved Collections of Information

Title: Activities of State-Licensed, Insured Branches of Foreign Banks.
Form Number: None.
OMB Number: 3064-0114.
Frequency of Response: On occasion.
Affected Public: State-licensed branches of insured banks.
Estimated Number of Respondents: 32.

Estimated Time per Response: 8 burden hours.

Estimated Total Annual Burden: 256 burden hours.

General Description of Collection: Section 202 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 (FDICIA) imposes restrictions on the permissible activities of state-licensed branches of foreign banks. The statute provides that after December 19, 1992, a state-licensed branch of a foreign bank may not engage in any activity which is not permissible for a federal branch of a foreign bank unless (1) (the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve has determined that the activity is consistent with safe and sound banking practice, and (2) the FDIC has determined that the activity would pose no risk to the deposit insurance fund. The collection of information consists of procedures to apply for permission to engage in, or continue to engage in, an activity which is not permissible for a federal branch of a foreign bank, and the submission of a plan to discontinue those activities that are deemed to pose significant risk to the deposit insurance fund. This collection is contained in the FDIC's regulations at 12 CFR part 346.

Request for Comment

Comments submitted in response to this Notice will be summarized or included in the FDIC's request for OMB approval. All comments will become a matter of public record. Written comments should address the accuracy of the burden estimates and ways to minimize burden including the use of automated collection techniques or the use of other forms of information technology as well as other relevant aspects of the information collection request.
