Stingray Pipeline Company; Notice of Stipulation Agreement

January 4, 1996.

Take notice that on December 6, 1995, Stingray Pipeline Company (Stingray) filed a Stipulation and Agreement (Agreement) intended to resolve all issues regarding the procurement and ownership of and title to line pack on Stingray's system. The Agreement provides that the two historic firm shippers on Stingray's system—Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Trunkline Gas Company—will agree to relinquish to Stingray any title or claim to line pack quantities that they previously furnished to the system; these two firm shippers are the only two shippers holding any such claim. In consideration therefor, these firm shippers will be compensated by Stingray through payments from a limited-term surcharge mechanism that is established pursuant to the Agreement. Stingray states that resolution of this claim became of significance because of the termination of those two contracts on November 29, 1994.

Comments on the settlement, as well as motions to intervene or protests should be filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC, 20426 on or before January 16, 1996.
