

experimental basis, the proposed modifications (59 FR 65942). The notice provided that the modifications would become effective on February 1, 1995, and would expire at the end of the one-year experimental period on January 31, 1996, absent renewal by the Board.

On December 1, 1995, following a review of the experience to date with the modifications and the views of the NLRB's Advisory Committee on Agency Procedure, the Board issued a notice proposing to make the modifications permanent upon expiration of the one-year experimental period on January 31, 1996 (60 FR 61679). The notice provided for a period of public comment on this proposal, until December 29, 1995.

Beginning December 18, 1995, during the comment period, and continuing through January 5, 1996, the Agency's offices were closed due to the lack of appropriated funds. As a result, both the experiment and the comment period were interrupted.

Accordingly, in a related notice published elsewhere in today's Federal Register, the Board has extended from December 29, 1995, until January 25, 1996, the deadline for filing comments. In order to allow the Board time to consider the comments, the Board has decided to also extend the experimental period from January 31, 1996, until March 1, 1996.

Dated, Washington, D.C., January 16, 1996.

By direction of the Board.

John J. Toner,

Executive Secretary.
