

this section and, if the time period of the transition plan is longer than one year, identify steps that will be taken during each year of the transition period; and indicate the official responsible for implementation of the plan. If a public entity has already complied with the transition plan requirement of a Federal agency regulation implementing section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or it has previously developed a transition plan to implement title II, the revised transition plan requirements apply only to those policies and practices that were not included in the previous transition plan(s).

Public entities are required to provide an opportunity to interested persons, including individuals with disabilities or organizations representing individuals with disabilities, to participate in the development of transition plans and they are required to make a copy of the transitions plan available for public inspection.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in State and Local Government services. (Transition Plan).

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form: None. Disability Rights Section, Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: State, Local or Tribal Government. Other: None. Under title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), State and Local governments cannot discriminate against individuals with disabilities in operating services, programs, and activities. If physical changes to existing facilities are required to achieve program access, public entities that have 50 or more employees must prepare a transition plan and make it available for public inspection. This proposed amendment to the current transition plan requirement applies only to those public entities that have 50 or more employees, that have responsibility or authority over streets, roads, walkways, and that choose to take advantage of the extensions of time provided by the proposed rule.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 10,000 responses (public entities) at 2 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 20,000 annual burden hours at $10 per hour for a total burden cost of $200,000.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

President's Committee on the International Labor Organization; Notice of Closed Meeting

In accordance with Section 10(a) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463), announcement is hereby given of a meeting of the President's Committee on the ILO:

Name: President's Committee on the International Labor Organization.

Date: Tuesday, January 30, 1996.

Time: 10:30 am.

Place: U.S. Department of Labor, Third & Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-2508, Washington, DC 20210.

Purpose: The meeting will include a review and discussion of current issues relating to United States' negotiating positions with member nations of the International Labor Organization. The meeting will concern matters the disclosure of which would seriously compromise the Government's negotiating objectives and bargaining positions. Accordingly, the meeting will be closed to the public, pursuant to Section 9(b) of the Government in the Sunshine Act, 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(9)(B).

Due to the furlough of Labor Department employees and other complications, we are unable to provide the full 15 days of prior notice of this meeting.

For Further Information Contact: Mr. Joaquin F. Otero, President's Committee on the International Labor Organization, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room S-2235, Washington, DC 20210; Telephone (202) 219-6043.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 22nd day of January 1996.

Robert B. Reich,
Secretary of Labor.

BILLING CODE 4510-23-M

Bureau of International Labor Affairs; U.S. National Administrative Office; North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation; Public Forum on the Effects of Sudden Plant Closings and the Impact on the Principle of Freedom of Association and the Right of Workers To Organize AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of public forum.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce a public forum on Submission 9501 filed under the North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation

Submission 9501, filed with the Mexican National Administrative Office (Mexican NAO) by the Telephone Workers of The Republic of Mexico, involves labor law matters in the United States, and was filed for review on February 9, 1995. The Mexican NAO issued a public report on May 31, 1995 requesting ministerial consultations on the matter, pursuant to Article 22 of the North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC). Pursuant to these ministerial consultations an agreement was reached on December 15, 1995, between the United States Secretary of Labor Robert B. Reich and his Mexican counterpart, Secretary Javier Bonilla Garcia. This agreement provides, inter alia, for a public forum in San Francisco, California to allow interested parties an opportunity to convey to the public their concerns on the effects of the sudden closing of a plant on the principle of freedom of association and the right of workers to organize. This public forum will be held on February 27, 1996, commencing at 9:30 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m.

Persons wishing to present their views on these matters may do so by registering their requests with the U.S. National Administrative Office (U.S. NAO) no later than February 16, 1996. Only those individuals registered in advance may address the forum.

ADDRESSES: The public forum will be held at the ANA Hotel San Francisco, located at 50 Third Street, San Francisco, California, 94103. The hotel telephone number is 415-974-6400. Registration to make an oral statement may be mailed or faxed to the U.S. NAO at the U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Room C-4327, Washington, D.C. 20210, Fax # 202-501-6615.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Irasema T. Garza, Secretary, U.S. National Administrative Office, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room C-4327, Washington, D.C. 20210, Telephone number—202/501/6653.

(This is not a toll-free number.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Nature and Conduct of the Public Forum

The public forum will be conducted by an officer of the U.S. Department of Labor. There will be limited audience capacity, and participation from the public will be based on a first-come, first-served basis. Simultaneous translation between English and Spanish will be provided. Disabled persons should contact the Secretary of the U.S. NAO, by February 16, if special accommodations are needed.

2. Oral or Written Statements and Requests To Present Oral Statements

Requests to present oral statements shall include name, address, and telephone and fax numbers of the presenter, the organization represented, if any, and any other information pertinent to the request. Such request must be received by February 16, 1996. The U.S. NAO will notify each requester of the disposition of their request to present an oral statement. Presenters may submit written statements in lieu of a request to make an oral statement. Such written statements will be entered into the record but will not be read at the forum.

Oral statements at the public forum will normally be limited to ten minutes. Additional time may be allowed based on the number of speakers. The number of oral presenters may be limited, based on considerations of available time, on a first-come, first-served basis. There will be no general audience participation nor questioning of presenters by members of the audience.

This is a public forum open to members of the press.

Signed at Washington, DC, on January 22, 1996.

Irasema T. Garza,
Secretary, U.S. National Administrative Office.

BILLING CODE 4510-28-M

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Information Collection Request Submitted for Public Comment and Recommendations

1. Payment of Compensation Without Award (LS-206);
2. Certification of Funeral Expenses (LS-265);
3. Notice of Controversion of Right to Compensation (LS-207);
4. Application for Authority to Employ Full-Time Students at Subminimum Wages

in Retail or Service Establishments or Agriculture (WH-200-MIS)

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)). This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension collection of: (1) Payment of Compensation Without Award; (2) Certification of Funeral Expenses; (3) Notice of Controversion of Right to Compensation; (4) Application for Authority to Employ Full-Time Students at Subminimum Wages in Retail or Service Establishments or Agriculture.

Copies of the proposed information collection requests can be obtained by contacting the employee listed below in the ADDRESSES section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted on or before April 1, 1996. Written comments should address whether the proposed information collection is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency; the accuracy of the burden (time and financial resources) estimates; ways to minimize burden including the use of automated collection techniques or the use of other forms of information technology; and other relevant aspects of the information collection request.

ADDRESSES: Ms. Patricia A. Forkel, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., N.W., Room S-3201, Washington, D.C. 20210, telephone (202) 219-7601 (this is not a toll-free number), fax 202-219-6592.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Payment of Compensation Without Award

I. Background

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs administers the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, which provides benefits to workers injured in maritime employment on the navigable waters of the United States or in an adjoining area customarily used by an employer in loading, unloading, repairing, or building a vessel. Under the Act, a self-insured employer or insurance carrier is required to pay compensation within 14 days after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death. Upon making the first payment, the employer or carrier must immediately notify the deputy commissioner of the payment. This form has been designated as the form on which report of first payment is to be made.

II. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to carry out its responsibility to monitor the payment status of a given case.

Certification of Funeral Expenses

I. Background

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs administers the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, which provides benefits to workers injured in maritime employment on the navigable waters of the United States or in an adjoining area customarily used by an employer in loading, unloading, repairing, or building a vessel. The Act provides that reasonable funeral expenses not to exceed $3,000 shall be paid in all compensable death cases. Form LS-265 has been provided for use in submitting the funeral expenses for payment.

II. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of this information collection in order to carry out its responsibility for monitoring and processing death cases. It is used to certify the amount of funeral expenses incurred in the case.

Notice of Controversion of Right to Compensation

I. Background

The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs administers the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, which provides benefits to workers injured in maritime employment on the navigable waters of the United States or in an adjoining area customarily used by an employer in loading, unloading, repairing, or building a vessel. Pursuant to the Act, if an employer controverts the right to compensation he/she shall file with the deputy commissioner in the affected compensation district on or before the fourteenth day after he has knowledge of the alleged injury or death, a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the Secretary of
