The petitions were submitted pursuant to Section 251 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2341). Consequently, the United States Department of Commerce has initiated separate investigations to determine whether increased imports into the United States of articles like or directly competitive with those produced by each firm contributed importantly to total or partial separation of the firm’s workers, or threat thereof, and to a decrease in sales or production of each petitioning firm.

Any party having a substantial interest in the proceeding may request a public hearing on the matter. A request for a hearing must be received by the Trade Adjustment Assistance Division, Room 7023, Economic Development Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, no later than the close of business of the tenth calendar day following the publication of this notice.

Bureau of Export Administration
Public Hearings on the Effects of Lifting the Export Ban on Alaskan North Slope Crude Oil

AGENCY: Bureau of Export Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of rescheduled public hearings.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce’s Bureau of Export Administration (BXA) is rescheduling public hearings on the effects on the environment and the economy of lifting the ban on the export of Alaskan North Slope (ANS) crude oil that were announced in the Federal Register on December 15, 1995 (60 FR 64412). BXA postponed the January 1996 hearings because of the government shutdown. The Department is conducting the hearings pursuant to the legislation that the President signed on November 28, 1995 which, among other things, requires him to conduct an environmental review, as well as to examine the effect of exports on jobs, consumers, and supplies of oil. This notice announces the rescheduled hearing dates and sites and the cancellation of the hearing in Bakersfield, California. Persons who have previously requested the opportunity to testify should reconfirm their interest by contacting the Department at the address below. In the event the Department is not open for normal business during the new hearing dates, the hearings will be rescheduled.
