

authorization after April 30, 1996, should file applications for their new EADs as soon as possible in order to ensure continuous employment authorization.

Employers of DED Salvadorans

For purposes of verifying or reverifying employment eligibility until April 30 1996, employers of DED Salvadorans whose employment authorization is automatically extended may not refuse to accept an EAD card, Form I-688B, which:

(1) Bears an expiration date of December 31, 1994 (or bears on its reverse an extension sticker punched for December 1994), and

(2) Contains the notation "274A.12(A)(11)" or "274A.12(A)(12)" on the face of the card under "Provision of Law."

EAD cards or extension stickers showing the automatic April 1996 expiration date will not be issued. Employers should not request proof of Salvadoran citizenship or any other document, if an automatically extended EAD card appears genuine and relates to the individual. Employers are reminded that this action does not affect the right of a worker to present any other legally acceptable document as proof of eligibility for employment. Employers are reminded that the law prohibiting unfair immigration-related employment practices remain in full force.

To complete or update the Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, for an employee who presents an automatically extended EAD card, the employer should include or add the following information under Section 2 (List A) or Section 3C, as appropriate:

(1) The expiration date of "12/31/94" from the EAD card;

(2) The last part of the provision of law, "(A)(11)" or "(A)(12)", from the face of the EAD card; and

(3) "Automatic expiration date 4/30/96".

Obtaining Subsequent Employment Authorization

In order to be eligible for asylum-based work authorization under the ABC settlement, Salvadoran class members must have an asylum application on file or must mail a complete Form I-589, Request for Asylum in the United States, to the appropriate INS Service Center on or before January 31, 1996. ABC class members should refer to the Form M-426, Special Filing Instructions for ABC Class Members, for important information on the procedures for filing their asylum and work authorization applications. The Special Filing

Instructions and the Form I-855, ABC Change of Address Form, can be obtained at local district offices or by calling 1-800-755-0777 or 1-800-870-3676 and requesting an "ABC packet."

Although Salvadorans do not have a deadline for filing employment authorization applications, the Service emphasizes that the adjudication of the application and issuance of the EAD may take 60 to 90 days not including delays caused by incomplete applications. Therefore, Salvadoran class members should file their work authorization applications early enough to allow for issuance and return of their new work permits before their old ones expire.

ABC Notice 5 and the Asylum Application Filing Deadline for Salvadoran Class Members

Salvadoran ABC class members who have never filed an asylum application, including those who did not receive Notice 5, must mail a complete asylum application by January 31, 1996, in order to remain eligible for ABC benefits. This asylum filing deadline remains unchanged. Salvadorans may file an initial asylum application after January 31, 1996, but they will not be eligible for ABC benefits.

Change of Address Reporting Requirement for ABC Class Members

ABC class members must notify the Service of any change of address by filing the Form I-855, ABC change of Address Form. Class members must mail the ABC Change of Address Form, but no other materials, to the Washington, DC address shown on the form. Class members who have filed an asylum application with the Service are encouraged also to send a copy of the ABC Change of Address Form to their local asylum office.

Dated: January 23, 1996.
