

have the exemptive relief granted under the Original Order, as amended, extended to include them so that they may also participate in the joint trading account used by the other applicants. In so doing, the advantages and benefits associated with the joint account would be extended to the New Applicants, and the other current applicants could also gain incremental benefits that may result from having even larger sums to invest in repurchase agreements. Because VKACAM and Advisory Corp. are under common control, they can easily coordinate their efforts in investing the available cash balances of the funds they advise and ensure compliance with the procedures and conditions specified in the Original Order.

For the SEC, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.
Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.

Kline Hawkes California SBIC; Notice of Request for Exemption

On November 15, 1995, Kline Hawkes California SBIC ("KH"), a California limited partnership SBIC (License No. 09/79-0403), filed a request to the SBA pursuant to 13 CFR 107.903 (b)(1), and (e) and 107.1201 of the Regulations governing small business investment companies for an exemption allowing KH to invest in an associate small concern, Elliott-Portwood Productions, Inc. (Elliott) of Petaluma, California. The request for the conflict of interest exemption arises because Mr. Jerome Engel is an officer, director, and owner of the corporate general partner of KH and is also a director and 3.7 percent shareholder of Elliott.

KH along with another investor is proposing to make a material investment in Elliott, a start-up company, for its expansion; and the existing economic interest of Mr. Engel, along with other Elliott shareholders, will be increased as a result of this investment.

The basis of the exemption is the prospect of an expansion of Elliott's early stage business which should result in increased economic activity and employment.

Notice is hereby given that any person may, not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this Notice, submit written comments regarding this exemption to the Associate Administrator for Investment, Small Business Administration, 409 Third Street SW., Washington, DC 20416.
