Arbitration Panel Decision Under the Randolph-Sheppard Act

AGENCY: Department of Education.

ACTION: Notice of Arbitration Panel decision under the Randolph-Sheppard Act.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that on November 11, 1994, an arbitration panel rendered a decision in the matter of Washington State Department of Services for the Blind v. United States Department of Interior, Bureau of Reclamation (Docket No. R-S/91-7). This panel was convened by the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Education pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 107d-

1(b). The Randolph-Sheppard Act (the Act) provides a priority for blind individuals to operate vending facilities on Federal property. Under this section of the Act, the State licensing agency (SLA) may file a complaint with the Secretary if the SLA determines that an agency managing or controlling Federal property fails to comply with the Act or regulations implementing the Act. The Secretary then is required to convene an arbitration panel to resolve the dispute.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: A copy of the full text of the arbitration panel decision may be obtained from George F. Arsnow, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue, SW., Room 3230, Mary E. Switzer Building, Washington, DC 20202-2738. Telephone: (202) 205-9317. Individuals who use a telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD) may call the TDD number at (202) 205-8298.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Randolph-Sheppard Act (20 U.S.C. 107d-2(c)), the Secretary publishes a synopsis of arbitration panel decisions affecting the administration of vending facilities on Federal and other property.

Background

In 1982, the Department of Interior through its Bureau of Reclamation (DOI) entered into an agreement with the Washington State Department of Services for the Blind, the SLA. This agreement provided for the operation by the SLA of a souvenir stand inside the visitors' arrival center at the Grand Coulee Dam in the State of Washington. In addition to the facility inside the visitors' arrival center, the agreement allowed the SLA to designate a blind vendor to operate several vending machines near the entrance to the Dam's powerhouse and to sell food and drink at a site in the visitors' parking lot.

In 1991 the DOI informed the SLA that it would retake possession of the space occupied by the blind vendor inside the visitors' arrival center. The SLA protested. However, DOI proceeded with the cancellation of the permit that authorized the operation of the vending facility. The cancellation of the permit was effective on May 9, 1991. DOI then assumed possession of the space at the visitors' arrival center where the blind vendor had previously sold souvenirs and informational publications. DOI's stated reason for cancellation of the permit was that it had entered into an agreement in April 1990 with the National Park Service and the Colville and Spokane Indian tribes to conduct interpretive programs at that site.
