

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Requests must be made to the System Manager and should contain, if possible, information about the specific project. You may also request a list of accountable disclosures that have been made of your record.

Requests in person: An individual who appears in person seeking access or disclosure of records relating to him/her shall provide his/her current address and at least one piece of tangible identification, such as drivers license, passport, or similar forms of identification, sufficient to verify the identity of the requester.

Requests by mail: Requests for access to records received by mail must contain the name and address of the requester and sufficient additional information to verify that the requester is the person he/she claims to be.

Requests by phone: Since positive identification of the caller cannot be established, telephone requests are not honored.
