Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993; Cigarette Ignition Propensity Joint Venture

Notice is hereby given that, on May 4, 1995, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), the Cigarette Ignition Propensity Joint Venture ("the Joint Venture") has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing a change in its membership. The notifications were filed for the purpose of maintaining the application of the Act to the Joint Venture. Specifically, the American Tobacco Company has merged into the Brown Williamson Tobacco Corporation, and is no longer a member of the Joint Venture. In addition, the Joint Venture has adopted an Amendment to its initial Joint Research and Development Agreement; that Amendment extends the existence of the Joint Venture until September 30, 1996.

No other changes have been made in either the membership or planned activity of the group research project. The Joint Venture intends to file additional written notifications disclosing all changes in membership.

On January 7, 1991, the Joint Venture filed its original notification pursuant to Section 6(a) of the Act. The Department of Justice published a notice in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act on February 4, 1991 (56 FR 4301).
