State Department Advisory Committee Study Group Meeting on UNCITRAL Project on Cross-Border Insolvency

The Study Group on Cross-Border Insolvency of the Secretary of State's of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law (ACPIL) will hold its next meeting on Saturday, March 16 from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. to review international efforts to harmonize rules on cross-border insolvency cases involving commercial entities.

The meeting will review the recent Report by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Working Group on Insolvency Law, which met in November 1995 to consider possible standards for procedural aspects of cross-border insolvency. No decision has been made as to the form any proposed rules should take, i.e. whether to prepare UN guidelines, consensual rules, a model or uniform law, or a multilateral treaty. The Advisory Committee Study Group meeting will facilitate preparation of possible United States positions for the next meeting of the UNCITRAL intergovernmental Working Group in April, 1996, and consider other United States initiatives as well.

UNCITRAL decided at its Plenary session in May, 1995 to work primarily on procedural, rather than substantive, rules. Based on the Report referenced above, this is likely to cover judicial cooperation, jurisdiction, access to proceedings for foreign trustees and other interests, the relationship between primary, ancillary and secondary proceedings, and related matters. Other procedure concerns may be taken up at this stage in the U.N. process, depending on the interests of participating countries. Future issues, such as substantive law involving priorities of claims and distribution could be considered, if at all, at a later stage.

The relationship of the UNCITRAL project generally to U.S. interests, and its impact on facilitation of international trade will be considered. Current projects by other organizations will be referred to where relevant, including the American Law Institute's project on harmonization of bankruptcy law between the NAFTA states, the International Bar Association's Concordat, the recent European Union proposed treaty on cross-border insolvency, as well as work by INSOL, the American Bankruptcy Institute, and others.

Background documents include the Report of the UNCITRAL Working Group, Dec. 1, 1995, UN Doc. A/CN.9/419; and a Report by INSOL (International Association of Insolvency Practitioners) on the Joint Project of UNCITRAL and INSOL, March 1, 1995. Copies of these documents, as well as the IBA and European Union documents referred to, are available from the Legal Adviser's Office at the address indicated below.

The meeting will be held at the International Law Institute, 1615 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20009 and is open to the public up to the capacity of the meeting room and subject to the rulings of the Chair. Since space is limited, persons wishing to attend should advise Ms. Gonzales of the Office of Legal Adviser (L/PIL), Suite 355 South Building, 2430 "E" Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20037–2800, fax (202) 776–8482. Persons who cannot attend the meeting are welcome to submit comments to the Legal Adviser's Office. For further information on this project or on UNCITRAL, please contact Harold S. Burman at the above address or at (202) 776–8420. For information on meeting arrangements, please contact Stuart Kerr of the International Law Institute at (202) 483–3036.

Dated: February 21, 1996.

Harold S. Burman,

Executive Director, Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law.
