INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. TA-201-65 and NAFTA-302-1]

Broom Corn Brooms

AGENCY: International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Institution and scheduling of an investigation under section 202 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. § 2252) (the Trade Act) and an investigation under section 302 of the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) Implementation Act (19 U.S.C. § 3352).

SUMMARY: Following receipt of petitions filed on March 4, 1996, on behalf of the U.S. Cornbroom Task Force and its individual members, Washington, DC, (petitioner) the United States International Trade Commission instituted investigation No. TA-201-65 under section 202(b) of the Trade Act, to determine whether an article ¹ is being imported into the United States in such increased quantities as to be a substantial cause of serious injury, or the threat thereof, to the domestic industry producing an article like or directly competitive with the imported article; and investigation No. NAFTA-302-1 under section 302(b) of the NAFTA Implementation Act, to determine whether, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a duty provided for under the NAFTA, a Mexican article ² is being imported into the United States in such increased quantities (in absolute terms) and under such conditions so that imports of the article, alone, constitute a substantial cause of serious injury, or a threat of serious injury, to the domestic industry producing an article like or directly competitive with the imported article.

Further, the petitioner, in its petition filed under section 302 of the NAFTA Implementation Act alleged that critical circumstances exist and requested, pursuant to section 302(a)(2) of that Act (19 U.S.C. § 3352(a)(2)), that provisional relief be provided pending completion of the full investigation and consideration by the President. Accordingly, if the Commission makes an affirmative injury determination under section 302(b) of that Act, it will also determine whether delay in taking action would cause damage to the industry that would be difficult to repair. If the second Commission determination is also in the affirmative, the Commission will find the amount or extent of provisional relief that is necessary to prevent or remedy the serious injury and forward its recommendation to the President.

For further information concerning the conduct of these investigations, hearing procedures, and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A through E (19 CFR part 201), and part 206, subparts A, B, and D (19 CFR part 206).

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 4, 1996.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Participation in the investigations and service list.—Persons wishing to participate in the investigations as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in section 201.11 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven (7) days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. The Secretary will prepare a service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to these investigations upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of confidential business information (CBI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and CBI service list.—The Commission intends to conduct these investigations jointly and maintain one information docket in these investigations. Except as provided below, the Secretary, pursuant to section 206.17(a) of the Commission's rules, will make CBI available to authorized applicants under the APO issued in the investigations, provided that the application is made not later than seven (7) days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Authorized applicants may have access to such information notwithstanding any prior action taken in connection with the phase of these investigations regarding provisional relief. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive CBI under the APO.

Hearings on injury and remedy.—The Commission has scheduled separate hearings in connection with the injury and remedy phases of these investigations. The hearing on injury will be held beginning at 9:30 a.m. on May 30, 1996, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. In the event that the Commission makes an affirmative injury determination or is equally divided on the question of injury in these investigations, a hearing on the question of remedy will be held beginning at 9:30 a.m. on July 11, 1996. Requests to appear at the hearings on injury and remedy should be filed in writing with the Secretary to the Commission on or before May 16, 1996 and July 3, 1996, respectively.

Oral testimony and written materials to be submitted at the hearing are governed by sections 201.6(b)(2) and 201.13(f) of the Commission's rules.

Written submissions.—Inasmuch as the petitioner has alleged the existence of critical circumstances and has requested provisional relief, the Commission will, on April 8, 1996, release statistical data it has collected to that point in the investigations to enable parties to prepare briefs with respect to that issue. The deadline for briefs on provisional relief is April 12, 1996. The deadline for filing prehearing briefs on injury is May 23, 1996, and that for filing prehearing briefs on remedy, including any commitments pursuant to 19 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(6)(B), is July 8, 1996. The deadline for filing posthearing briefs on injury is June 6, 1996, and that for filing posthearing briefs on remedy is July 16, 1996.

In addition, any person who has not entered an appearance as a party to the investigations may submit a written statement of information pertinent to the consideration of provisional relief on or before April 12, 1996, pertinent to the consideration of injury on or before June 6, 1996, and pertinent to the consideration of remedy on or before July 16, 1996. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of section 201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain CBI must also conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the rules.

In accordance with section 201.16(c) of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigations must be served on all other parties to the investigations (as identified by the service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.
