SCT Yarns, Incorporated; Jefferson, Georgia and Cherryville, North Carolina; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 29, 1995, applicable to all workers of SCT Yarns, Incorporated, Jefferson, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 19, 1995 (60 FR 37083).

The Department reviewed the certification for workers at the subject firm, and is amending the certification to cover the workers at the SCT Yarns location in Cherryville, North Carolina. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of textile yarn. The company reports ongoing worker separations at the Cherryville plant.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of SCT Yarns, Incorporated who were adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,149 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of SCT Yarns, Incorporated, Jefferson, Georgia (TA-W-31,149) and Cherryville, North Carolina (TA-W-31,149A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 6, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 1st day of March 1996.

Russell T. Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

[TA-W-31,630; TA-W-31,630D]

Vanity Fair Mills, Incorporated, Butler, Alabama and Vanity Fair Mills, Merengo Division, Demopolis, Alabama; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 18, 1996, applicable to all workers of Vanity Fair Mills, Incorporated, Butler, Alabama. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 6, 1996 (61 FR 4486).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that on May 31, 1996, Vanity Fair is permanently closing its sewing plant, the Merengo Division, in Demopolis, Alabama. The workers are engaged in the production of intimate apparel.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Vanity Fair in Demopolis.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,630 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Vanity Fair Mills, Incorporated, Butler, Alabama (TA-W-31,630), and Vanity Fair Mills, Merengo Division, Demopolis, Alabama (TA-W-31,630D) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 1, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of March 1996.

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension collection of the Application for a Certificate to Employ Learners at Subminimum Wages.

A copy of the proposed information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before May 21, 1996. The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

* evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
