

on November 24, 1995 (60 FR 58136), of the final regulations for 34 CFR Part 371, which authorize the Secretary to extend ongoing projects up to an additional two years. The Secretary intends to extend eligible existing projects. This will require the use of a substantial portion of the available FY 1996 funds. The Secretary intends to use the small amount of remaining funds to provide increased grant amounts to existing projects to increase their capacity to serve additional clients and to fund additional applications from the FY 1995 competition that were previously approved but not funded. The FY 1996 competition for new grants is cancelled. It is anticipated that a competition for new grants will be held in FY 1997.

[Docket No. RP95-31-088, et al.]

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation; Notice of Motion To Place Into Effect Revised Tariff Sheets

March 27, 1996.

Take notice that on March 22, 1996, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National) submitted for filing, pursuant to Section 4(e) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and Section 154.67 of the Commission's Regulations, a motion to place various tariff sheets to its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume Nos. 1 and 2, into effect as of the effective dates shown on Appendix A attached to the filing.

National states that on February 16, 1996, the Commission issued a Letter Order approving a settlement offer tendered by National on September 29, 1995, which order became final on March 18, 1996. Pursuant to Article VII of the settlement, National is required to file a motion to place rates into effect on April 1, 1996. The tariff sheets must therefore be made effective pursuant to this motion on their respective effective dates.

National further states that copies of this filing were served upon the company's jurisdictional customers and upon the Regulatory Commissions of the States of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, D.C., 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.
