

(B) When committed with an unloaded firearm. Dishonorable discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances, and confinement for 2 years.

The following analysis is inserted after the analysis to Article 128, para. e: 1996 Amendment: A separate maximum punishment for assault with an unloaded firearm was created due to the serious nature of the offense. Threatening a person with an unloaded firearm places the victim of that assault in fear of losing his or her life. Such a traumatic experience is a far greater injury to the victim than that sustained in the course of a typical simple assault and therefore calls for an increased punishment.

ADDRESSES: Comments on the proposed changes should be sent to Maj. Paul Holden, Office of the Judge Advocate General, Criminal Law Division, 2200 Army Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20310-2200.

DATES: Comments on the proposed changes must be received no later than [insert date of publication +75 days] for consideration by the Joint Service Committee on Military Justice.
