SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. 794), provides that no otherwise qualified person with a disability shall, solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity conducted by any Executive agency. The Department of Education published regulations implementing section 504 in 34 CFR Part 105. Pursuant to 34 CFR 105.10, the Department of Education has conducted a self-evaluation of its current policies and practices, assessing how well they meet the requirements of section 504 and its implementing regulations, and recommending modifications of those policies and practices where necessary. Under 34 CFR 105.10(b), the Department is soliciting comments (both oral and written) from interested persons, particularly persons with disabilities or organizations representing persons with disabilities, regarding the Department's Self-evaluation.

Dated: April 2, 1996.

Howard R. Moses,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Special Education and Rehabilitative Services.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. ER95-1269-000]

e prime, inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

April 2, 1996.

On June 26, 1995, e prime, inc. (e prime) filed an application for authorization to sell power at market-based rates, and for certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, e prime requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by e prime. On March 29, 1996, the Commission issued an Order Conditionally Accepting And Suspending Revised Transmission Tariffs And Conditionally Accepting Market-Based Rates (Order), in the above-docketed proceeding.

The Commission's March 29, 1996 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (F), (G), and (I):

(F) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by e prime should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214 (1995).

(G) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (F) above, e prime is hereby authorized to issue securities and to assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, endorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(I) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of e prime's issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities * * *.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 29, 1996.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.,

Acting Secretary.

[Docket No. ER96-827-000]

Universal Power Services, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

April 2, 1996.

On January 16, 1996, as amended February 2, 1996, Universal Power Services, L.L.C. (Universal) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which Universal will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. Universal also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Universal requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Universal.

On March 21, 1996, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Universal should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, Universal is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Universal's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 22, 1996.

Copies of the full text of the order are available from the Commission's Public
