Telecommunications Services Between the United States and Cuba

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: On March 29, 1996, the Commission approved the application of AT&T Corp. to provide telecommunications services between the United States and Cuba. The services authorized include both switched voice and private line services. Grant of the application also will permit AT&T to improve its capability to serve Cuba, because a new service agreement it entered into with its correspondent in Cuba, EMTELCUBA, becomes effective upon grant of the application. The Commission has authorized AT&T to provide service between the United States and Cuba in accordance with the
