

under the APA because the IRA does not preclude judicial review and the agency action is not committed to agency discretion by law within the meaning of the APA.

While the Eighth Circuit decision precludes the Secretary from taking into trust the land at issue in that particular case, new trust acquisitions will be made on a case-by-case basis. The procedure announced in today's rule, however, will apply to all pending and future trust acquisitions.

The Department certifies that this procedural rule meets the standards provided in Sections 2(a) and 2(b)(2) of Executive Order 12778.

The Department has determined that this rule:

- Does not have significant federalism effects.
- Will not have significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).
- Does not have significant takings implications under E.O. 12630.
- Does not have significant effects on the economy, nor will it result in increases in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, or local governments, agencies, or geographical regions.
- Does not have any adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or the export/import market.
- Is categorically excluded from the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 because it is of an administrative, technical, and procedural nature. Therefore, neither an environmental assessment nor an environmental impact statement is warranted.

This rule is not a significant rule under E.O. 12866 and does not require approval by the Office of Management and Budget.

This rule is not a major rule as defined in 5 U.S.C. 804. The annual number of tribal requests to place lands in trust is small. There will be costs incurred by a party seeking judicial review. The author of this rule is: Mary Jane Sheppard, Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of the Interior.

Because this is a procedural rule under Section 553(b)(3)(A) of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. 551 et seq., it is exempt from requirements for notice and comment rulemaking.

2. Section 151.12, Action on requests, is amended by designating the existing text as paragraph (a) and by adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 151.12 Title examination.

* * * * *

(b) Following completion of the Title Examination provided in § 151.13 of this part and the exhaustion of any administrative remedies, the Secretary shall publish in the Federal Register, or in a newspaper of general circulation serving the affected area a notice of his/her decision to take land into trust under this part. The notice will state that a final agency determination to take land in trust has been made and that the Secretary shall acquire title in the name of the United States no sooner than 30 days after the notice is published.
