Mead Office Products, Salem, Oregon; Dismissal of Application for Reconsideration

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(C) an application for administrative reconsideration was filed with the Program Manager of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance for workers at Mead Office Products, Salem, Oregon. The review indicated that the application contained no new substantial information which would bear importantly on the Department's determination. Therefore, dismissal of the application was issued.

Mid-Columbia Lumber & Box Co., Inc., Madras, Oregon; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (P.L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance, hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA), and in accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273), an investigation was initiated on April 1, 1996 in response to a petition filed on behalf of workers at Mid-Columbia Lumber and Box Company, Incorporated located in Madras, Oregon.

In a letter dated April 24, 1996, the sole petitioner requested that this petition be withdrawn. Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 30th day of April 1996.

Miller Brewing Company, Milwaukee Brewery, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of March 28, 1996, the petitioners, Brewery Workers Local 9, UAW (Amalgamated) AFL-CIO, requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for NAFTA-Transitional Adjustment Assistance for workers of the subject firm. The denial notice was signed on February 27, 1996, and published in the Federal Register on March 19, 1996 (61 FR 11225).

The petitioner presents evidence that the Department's analysis of U.S. imports of beer was incomplete.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 29th day of April 1996.

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)). This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed new collection of: Housing Terms and Conditions (WH-521); and the proposed extension collection of: Carrier's or Self-Insurers' Report to the Deputy Commissioner (LS-222); and Representative Payee Report (CM-623), Representative Payee Report—Short Form (CM-623S), Physician's/Medical Officer's Report (CM-787).

A copy of the proposed information collection requests can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before July 17, 1996. The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

ADDRESSES: Mr. Rich Elman, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-3201, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 219-6375 (this is not a toll-free number), fax 202-219-6592.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Housing Terms and Conditions

I. Background

Section 201(c) of the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act (MSPA) requires that any farm labor contractor, agricultural employer or agricultural association that provides housing to any seasonal agricultural worker post in a conspicuous place or present to such worker a statement of the terms and conditions of such housing. In addition, section 201(g) of MSPA requires that such information be provided in English, or as necessary and reasonable, in a language common to the workers and that the Department of Labor make forms available to provide such information. This information collection is a third party notification and was previously not considered subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act.

II. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to carry out its responsibility to monitor an employer's compliance with MSPA requirements concerning the terms of occupancy of housing for seasonal agricultural workers.

Carrier's or Self-Insurer's Report to the Deputy Commissioner

I. Background

Section 39(c)(1) of the Longshore Act requires that disabled workers be assisted in obtaining the best rehabilitation services available. Injured workers traditionally have been referred late for vocational services, which results in excessive compensation costs for employers and difficulty in rehabilitating injured workers. This form is used for the early identification of injured workers who may need vocational rehabilitation services to assist them in a swift return to employment.

II. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order that insurance carriers and self-insurers can identify disabled workers who may need vocational services to return to work as quickly as possible.

Type of Review: Extension.
Agency: Employment Standards Administration.

Representative Payee Report, Representative Payee Report-Short Form, Physician's/Medical Officer's Report

I. Background

Benefits due a black lung beneficiary may be paid to a representative payee on behalf of the beneficiary when the beneficiary is unable to manage his/her benefits due to incapability, incompetence or minority. The Representative Payee Report and the Representative Payee Report-Short Form, are used to collect expenditure data regarding the disbursement of the beneficiary's benefits by the payee to assure that the beneficiary's needs are being met. The Physician's/Medical Officer's Report is used to determine the incapability or incompetency of a beneficiary to manage his/her benefits.

II. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to carry out its responsibility to determine if a beneficiary is capable and/or competent to manage his/her benefits, and to assure that the representative payee is using the benefits to meet the beneficiary's needs.

Type of Review: Extension.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 50-263, 50-282, 50-306 and 72-10]

Northern States Power Company; Notice of Transfer of Control of License

Notice is hereby given that the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission (Commission) is considering approval under 10 CFR 50.80 and 10 CFR 72.50 of the transfer of control of the licenses for the Monticello Nuclear Generating Plant, the Prairie Island Units 1 and 2 Nuclear Generating Plants, and the Prairie Island Independent Spent Fuel Storage Installation facility, held by Northern States Power Company (NSP). Following a series of transactions, NSP will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Wisconsin Energy Corporation (WEC), the parent company of Wisconsin Electric Power Company (WEPCO). WEC will be renamed Primergy Corporation (Primergy) and will own two operating utility subsidiaries: (1) Northern States Power Company, which will be reincorporated in Wisconsin and merged with a newly formed WEC/Primergy subsidiary, and (2) WEPCO, which will be named Wisconsin Energy Company. The merged NSP will continue to operate the same facilities above in the same locations.

Pursuant to 10 CFR 50.80 and 10 CFR 72.50 the Commission may approve the transfer of control of a license, after notice to interested persons, upon the Commission's determination that the holder of the license following the transfer of control is qualified to hold the license and the transfer of the control is otherwise consistent with applicable provisions of law, regulations, and orders of the Commission.

For further details with respect to this action, see the October 20, 1995, submittal from NSP, which is available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, the Gelman Building, 2120 L Street, NW, Washington, DC, and at the local public document room located at the Minneapolis Public Library, Technology and Science Department, 300 Nicollet Mall, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401.

Dated at Rockville, Maryland this 9th day of May 1996.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Kevin A. Connaughton,

Acting Director, Project Directorate III-1, Division of Reactor Projects—III/IV, Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation.
