

However, administrative reviews of periods prior to January 1, 1995 could still be conducted and on April 28, 1995 an administrative review of this order was requested for the period January 1, 1994 through December 31, 1994. 60 FR 25885 (May 15, 1995).

On September 6, 1995, in a case involving the countervailing duty order on ceramic tile from Mexico, Ceramica, the CAFC ruled that, absent an injury determination by the ITC, the Department may not assess countervailing duties under section 1303(a)(1) on entries from Mexico of dutiable merchandise which occurred on or after April 23, 1985, the effective date of Mexico's Bilateral Agreement with the United States. On February 21, 1996, the Department implemented the CAFC's ruling in the case of Mexican ceramic tile and amended the effective date of the revocation from January 1, 1995 to April 23, 1985. 61 FR 6630. Because the order on leather wearing apparel is a Mexican order and involves the same set of pertinent facts (i.e., the ITC did not make an injury determination), the CAFC's decision applies to the order on leather wearing apparel from Mexico.

As a result, on March 29, 1996, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published in the Federal Register its notice of intent to terminate the countervailing duty administrative review and to amend the revocation of the countervailing duty order on leather wearing apparel from Mexico to be effective April 23, 1985. We invited interested parties to comment but received no comments. Accordingly, we are terminating the instant review of this countervailing duty order. Also, we are amending the previous revocation of this order, which affects all unliquidated entries, to be effective April 23, 1985, rather than January 1, 1995, in recognition of the Ceramica decision.

Scope of the Review

The HTS item numbers are provided for convenience and Customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

Notice of Termination of the Countervailing Duty Administrative Review and Amendment of the Revocation of the Countervailing Duty Order

This notice serves as notification to the public of our termination of the instant administrative review, covering the period January 1, 1994 through December 31, 1994, and amendment of the revocation of the countervailing duty order on Mexican leather wearing apparel to be effective April 23, 1985. This revocation applies to all unliquidated entries of subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after April 23, 1985.

We will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to terminate the suspension of liquidation as of the date of publication of this notice and to liquidate all unliquidated entries of the subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after April 23, 1985, without regard to countervailing duties. We will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to refund with interest any estimated countervailing duties collected with respect to those entries. We note that the requirement for a cash deposit of estimated countervailing duties was previously terminated in conjunction with the section 753 determination.

This notice serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 355.34(d). Timely written notification of return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and the terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation.

This notice is published in accordance with section 751(a)(1) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(a)(1)) and 19 CFR 355.22.
