DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging a Settlement by Consent Pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act (CERCLA)

Notice is hereby given that on May 8, 1996, a proposed consent decree in United States v. Fidelcor Business Credit Corp., et al., Civ. A. No. 93-CV-0233, was lodged with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. This settlement is with Fidelcor Business Credit Corporation, and three of its officers, Gerald Blum, Bruce Hilowitz and Steven Freidberg, who are alleged to have arranged for the disposal of hazardous substances at the Eddystone Avenue Superfund Site, located in Eddystone, Pennsylvania and the Thompson Street Trailer Superfund Site located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The settlement in this matter is pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., and requires the Settlers to pay $720,000.00 in past response costs to the United States. The Decree reserves the right of the United States to seek further injunctive relief or response costs should new information or new conditions be discovered indicating that further response actions are necessary, and to seek recovery of costs associated with damage to natural resources.

The consent decree includes a covenant not to sue by the United States under Sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9606 and 9607, and under Section 7003 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA"), 42 U.S.C. § 6973, for past response costs.

The Department of Justice will receive comments relating to the proposed consent decree for a period of thirty days from the date of publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, P.O. Box 7611, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC, 20044, and should refer to United States v. Fidelcor Business Credit Corp., et al., DOJ Reference No. 90-11-3-956. Commentors may request an opportunity for a public meeting in the affected area, in accordance with Section 7003(d) of RCRA.

The proposed consent decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, 651 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., Region III Office of the Environmental Protection Agency, 841 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 "G" Street NW., 4th Floor, Washington, DC, 20005, (202) 624-0892. A copy of the proposed decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library at the address listed above. In requesting a copy, please refer to the referenced case and number, and enclose a check in the amount of $4.50 (25 cents per page reproduction costs), payable to the Consent Decree Library. Joel M. Gross,

Chief, Environmental Enforcement Section,
Environment and Natural Resources Division.

Agency Information Collection Activities: Extension of Existing Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; nonimmigrant checkout letter.

The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register.

Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information, please contact Richard A. Sloan, 202-616-7600, Director, Policy Directives and Instructions Branch, Immigration and Naturalization Service, U.S. Department of Justice, Room 5307, 425 I Street NW., Washington, DC 20536. Additionally, comments and/or suggestions regarding the item(s) contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time may also be directed to Mr. Richard A. Sloan.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Extension of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Nonimmigrant Checkout Letter.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form G-146. Detention and Deportation, Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Individuals or Households. This collection of information is used in making inquiries of persons in the United States or abroad concerning the whereabouts of aliens, and also requests departure information by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, when initial investigation to locate the alien or verify his or her departure is unsuccessful.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 20,000 respondents at 10 minutes (.166) per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 3,320 annual burden hours.

If additional information is required contact: Mr. Robert B. Briggs, Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management
