Rule 17a-11

SEC File No. 270-94

OMB Control No. 3235-0085

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for approval of extension on the following rule:

Rule 17a-11 requires broker-dealers to give notice when certain specified events occur. Specifically, the rule requires broker-dealers to send notice promptly (but within 24 hours) after the broker-dealer's aggregate indebtedness is in excess of 1,200 percent of its net capital, its net capital is less than 5 percent of aggregate debt items or its total net capital is less than 120 percent of the broker-dealer's required minimum net capital. In addition, broker-dealers are required to give notice if they fail to make and keep current books and records required by Rule 17a-3 or if they discover any material inadequacy as defined in Rule 17a-5(g).

The notice required by the rule alerts the Commission and self-regulatory organizations ("SROs"), which have oversight responsibility over broker-dealers, to those firms having financial or operational problems.

Because broker-dealers are required to file pursuant to Rule 17a-11 only when certain specified events occur, it is difficult to develop a meaningful figure for the cost of compliance with Rule 17a-11. It is anticipated that approximately 650 broker-dealers will spend 1 hour per year complying with Rule 17a-11. The total cost is estimated to be approximately 650 hours. With respect to those broker-dealers that must give notice under Rule 17a-11, the cost is approximately $10 per response for a total annual expense for all broker-dealers of $6,500.

General comments regarding the estimated burden hours should be directed to the Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission at the address below. Any comments concerning the accuracy of the estimated average burden hours for compliance with Commission rules and forms should be directed to Michael E. Bartell, Associate Executive Director, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 and Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 3208, New Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20503.
