

recommending adoption of these programs to the full board. Both the internal auditor and the external auditor should have unrestricted access to the audit committee without the need for any prior management knowledge or approval. Other duties of the audit committee should include reviewing the independence of the external auditor annually, being consulted by management when it seeks a second opinion on an accounting issue, overseeing the quarterly regulatory reporting process, and reporting its findings periodically to the full board of directors.

Directors' Examination. A review by an independent third party that has been authorized by the bank's board of directors and is performed in accordance with the board's analysis of potential risk areas. Certain procedures may also be required as a result of state law. A directors' examination consisting solely of such procedures as cash counts and confirmations of loans and deposits would not normally be considered a well-planned directors' examination. (Sometimes directors' examinations are similar to so-called "engagement audits" or "operational audits." Nevertheless, no widely accepted national standards exist for the specific procedures that must be performed in directors' examinations or these "audits.")

External Auditing Program. The performance of procedures to test and evaluate high risk areas of a bank's business by an independent auditor, who may or may not be a public accountant, sufficient for the auditor to be able to express an opinion on the financial statements or to report on the results of the procedures performed.

Financial Statements. The statements of financial position, income, cash flows, and changes in shareholders equity together with related notes.

Independent. No certified public accountant, public accountant, or other auditor will be recognized as independent who is not in fact independent. (Reference is made to § 335.604 of the FDIC rules and regulations for the complete definition of the term "independent.")

Outside Directors. Members of a bank's board of directors who are not officers, employees, or principal stockholders of the bank, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates, and do not have any material business dealings with the bank, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates.

Public Accountant. A certified public accountant or licensed public accountant who is duly registered and in good standing as such under the laws of the place of his/her residence or principal office, who is licensed by the accounting regulatory authority of his/her state, and who possesses a permit to practice public accountancy.

Report on the Balance Sheet. An examination of the balance sheet, accounting records, and other supporting evidence performed by an independent certified or licensed public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Risk Areas. The risk areas are those particular activities of a specific bank that expose the bank to potential losses if problems were to exist and go undetected. The highest risk areas in banks generally include, but are not necessarily limited to, the valuation of collectibility of loans (including the reasonableness of the allowance for loan losses), investments, and repossessed and foreclosed collateral; internal controls; and insider transactions.

Formations of, Acquisitions by, and Mergers of Bank Holding Companies

The companies listed in this notice have applied to the Board for approval, pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. 1841 et seq.) (BHC Act), Regulation Y (12 CFR part 225), and all other applicable statutes and regulations to become a bank holding company and/or to acquire the assets or the ownership of, control of, or the power to vote shares of a bank or bank holding company and all of the banks and nonbanking companies owned by the bank holding company, including the companies listed below.

The applications listed below, as well as other related filings required by the Board, are available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the standards enumerated in the BHC Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)). If the proposal also involves the acquisition of a nonbanking company, the review also includes whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company complies with the standards in section 4 of the BHC Act, including whether the acquisition of the nonbanking company can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices" (12 U.S.C. 1843). Any request for a hearing must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal. Unless otherwise noted, nonbanking
