All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this filing if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be necessary for the applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

G. Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after the issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

Notice of Procedural Change in Payment for Selected RIMS Documents

June 20, 1996.

In an effort to serve the public better and expedite requests for documents, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission today announces a procedural change in payment for selected RIMS documents.

Beginning July 1, 1996, the Commission will begin assessing a charge of 15 cents per page for all print requests of 11 or more pages from the Commission's electronic Records and Information Management System (RIMS) III. This procedural change is consistent with 18 CFR 388.109(a)(4).

A charge will be assessed on the number of pages requested from RIMS III, not the number of pages actually selected by the user after the pages have been printed. This change is being made to improve the level of service and reduce the delays and unnecessary burden caused by requests for documents and pages that are not required after they have been printed.

Users now have the capability of viewing many documents and individual pages before they submit a print request. RIMS III allows users to view documents and print selected pages. Since 1994, images of selected documents have been available to users for viewing and printing at the FERC's Washington Headquarters. All current documents (11" x 17" and smaller) are now being scanned and are available to users at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

This does not affect the pages printed from RIMS microfilm or aperture cards (RIMS II). (Aperture cards are still being made for pages larger than 11" x 17".) Requests for RIMS pages available only on, and printed from, microfilm and/or aperture cards will be handled and priced as they have been in the past, since documents cannot be viewed prior to being requested.

Please contact the staff at the Front Desk (202) 208-1371 of the Public Reference Room for further information.

Lois D. Cashell,
Secretary.
