L. 101–630, 25 U.S.C. 3201–3211. The Department invites comment on the information collection described below.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Information Collection Request

The Department is seeking comments on the following Information Collection Request.

Type of review: New. Title: (1) Background Investigations of Individuals Whose Duties and Responsibilities Allow Them Regular Contact With or Control Over Indian Children, 25 CFR § 63.15. (2) Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Program Awards, 25 CFR § 63.33 and 25 CFR § 63.34. Effected Entities: Tribal Governments; Tribal Organizations.

Abstract: The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) is establishing regulations as mandated by the Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act. The regulations prescribe minimum standards of character and suitability for employment of individuals whose duties and responsibilities allow them regular contact with or control over Indian children, as prescribed by Title IV, Section 408 of the Act, 25 U.S.C. 3207, and establish the method for distribution of funds to support tribally operated programs to protect Indian children and reduce the incidents of family violence in Indian country as authorized by Title IV, Section 411 of the Act, 25 U.S.C. 3210(f)(3). The Bureau of Indian Affairs developed the regulations in consultation with tribes. A working group of tribal and BIA representatives developed a draft of each section that was then presented to participants at a national tribal consultation meeting in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, August 31 through September 1, 1994. The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking was published in the Federal Register on September 1, 1995.

Background Investigations of Individuals Whose Duties and Responsibilities Allow Them Regular Contact With or Control Over Indian Children. Indian tribes and tribal organizations receiving funds under the authority of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act or the Tribally Controlled Schools Act of 1988 must conduct a background investigation for individuals whose duties and responsibilities would allow them regular contact with or control over Indian children, and employ only individuals who meet standards of character that are no less stringent than those prescribed for the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Indian tribes and tribal organizations may conduct their own background investigations, contract with private firms, or request the Office of Personnel Management to conduct an investigation. Third party notification or public disclosure is associated with this collection.

Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Program Awards. The Bureau of Indian Affairs will use the application for funding to determine applicant eligibility, scope of service population, safeguard Federal funds and other resources, and administer and evaluate programs. Tribal governments or tribal organizations provide the information by submitting Indian Self-determination and Education Assistance Act. Pub. L. 93–638, as amended, 25 U.S.C. § 450 et seq., contract, compact, or grant proposals to the Bureau of Indian Affairs.
