Tennessee states that the purpose of this filing is to recover gas supply realignment costs ("GSR costs") paid or known and measureable at the time of the filing, consistent with the GSR cost recovery provisions reflected in Section XXVI of the General Terms and Conditions of Tennessee's Fifth Revised FERC Gas Tariff. The charges include a GSR demand surcharge applicable to firm customers and a unit GSR component applicable to Tennessee's interruptible services.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
