

and production facility, Adams County, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 6, 1996 (61 FR 28900).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The Department's review of the certification, revealed that workers at the subject firm's Mount Union, Pennsylvania production facility were inadvertently excluded from the certification. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Dallco Industries, Inc. located in Mount Union. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of ladies' loungewear, sleepwear, sportswear and children's clothing.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Dallco Industries, Inc. who were adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-32,179A is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Dallco Industries, Inc., headquarters and production facility, York Pennsylvania and the production facility in Adams County, Pennsylvania (TA-W-32,179A), and the production facility in Mount Union, Pennsylvania (TA-W-32,179A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 12, 1995, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of July 1996.

Curtis K. Kooser,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
