established to enable it to test and certify products under the programs and procedures which it had requested. The NRTL staff determined that additional on-site reviews were not necessary at this time and that at the next regularly scheduled audits the auditors will assure that the controls are adequate for the scope of the activities involved in the NRTL program.

The NRTL Recognition Program staff made an in-depth study of the details of WL's original application for recognition and the on-site assessment and determined that an additional on-site visit was not necessary. The programs and procedures for which Wyle Laboratories has requested accreditation are the type that have been utilized previously in their nuclear and defense area programs, and controls have already been established. With respect to the test standards for which WL has requested, all but those pertaining to fire extinguishment and protection equipment are similar to the standards for which it has already been accredited and are, therefore, within the recognized capabilities of its personnel, facilities, and equipment. Regarding the fire extinguishment and equipment protection standards, Wyle has tested at least four products in each of 16 of the 18 standards requested. The general knowledge that WL has acquired in the performance of those tests, and the test equipment and personnel on the site, would indicate that it has the capability to test and certify products under these standards.
In any event, at the next scheduled audit a judgment will be made of the adequacy of the controls for the scope of activities involved in the NRTL program as well as of the status of the facility, equipment, and personnel.

Preliminary Finding
Based upon a review of the completed application file and the recommendation of the staff, the Assistant Secretary has made a preliminary finding that the Wyle Laboratories facility for which expansion of its recognition was requested (Huntsville, Alabama) can meet the requirements as prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7.
All interested members of the public are invited to supply detailed reasons and evidence supporting or challenging the sufficiency of the applicant's having met the requirements for expansion of its recognition as a Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory, as required by 29 CFR 1910.7 and Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. Submittal of pertinent written documents and exhibits shall be made no later than September 10, 1996, and must be addressed to the NRTL Recognition Program, Office of Variance Determination, Room N 3653, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. Copies of the WL application, the laboratory survey reports, and all submitted comments, as received, (Docket No. NRTL–1–93), are available for inspection and duplication at the Docket Office, Room N 2634, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address.

The Assistant Secretary's final decision on whether the applicant (Wyle Laboratories) satisfies the requirements for expansion of its recognition as an NRTL will be made on the basis of the entire record including the public submissions and any further proceedings that the Assistant Secretary may consider appropriate in accordance with Appendix A to Section 1910.7.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 8th day of July, 1996.

Joseph A. Dear, Assistant Secretary.

Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration

Grant of Individual Exemptions; San Diego National Bank

AGENCY: Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Grant of individual exemptions.

SUMMARY: This document contains exemptions issued by the Department of Labor (the Department) from certain of the prohibited transaction restrictions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (the Act) and/or the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code).

Notices were published in the Federal Register of the pendency before the Department of proposals to grant such exemptions. The notices set forth a summary of facts and representations contained in each application for exemption and referred interested persons to the respective applications for a complete statement of the facts and representations. The applications have been available for public inspection at the Department in Washington, D.C. The notices also invited interested persons to submit comments on the requested exemptions to the Department. In addition the notices stated that any interested person might submit a written request that a public hearing be held (where appropriate). The applicants have represented that they have complied with the requirements of the notification to interested persons.

The notices of proposed exemption were issued and the exemptions are being granted solely by the Department because, effective December 31, 1978, section 102 of Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1978 (43 FR 47713, October 17, 1978) transferred the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue exemptions of the type proposed to the Secretary of Labor.

Statutory Findings

In accordance with section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code and the procedures set forth in 29 CFR Part 2570, Subpart B (55 FR 32836, 32847, August 10, 1990) and based upon the entire record, the Department makes the following findings:

(a) The exemptions are administratively feasible;
(b) They are in the interests of the plans and their participants and beneficiaries; and
(c) They are protective of the rights of the participants and beneficiaries of the plans.
